The book highlights how keeping a Behaviour Journal can increase communication and language affecting behaviour and learning. It includes tried and tested exercises that allow readers to practice the art of keeping a Behaviour Journal as well as examples from past Behaviour Journal writers who share their experiences demonstrating how the journal can facilitate the immediate and regular sharing of the trainee learning in the classroom with the mentor or consultant. It shows readers how to create a Behaviour Journal as a model and tool for initial teacher training to foster independent and reflective learning, use observations and reflective skills to produce convincing, well-evidenced reflective writing using experience, observations and relevant reading, be critical of classroom systems, strategies or programmes to ensure validity or recognise inadequacies.
