Human Rights University Casebook Series:

Human Rights Louis Henkin, 2009 Presentation de l'auteur This casebook provides a comprehensive accessible and up to date analysis of international human rights law It emphasizes the relationship between the international regional and national legal systems with a particular focus on the United States features an intellectual and historical development of the idea of human rights and analyzes recent developments in areas including corporate responsibility terrorism and human rights the rights of refugees international criminal law and the role of NGOs The first edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to address important and hot button issues and topics in international human rights law These include an introductory case study on human rights extraordinary renditions and extraterritoriality extensive coverage of regional human rights systems and NGOs terrorism and human rights human rights litigation in U S courts corporations and human rights refugee law the right to health Recueil Des Cours, 1996 Academie de Droit International de la Haye, 1998-07-13 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law This volume contains International Business Transactions in United States Courts by H H KOH Professor at Yale University New Haven Citoyennete de l'Union europeenne nationalite et condition des etrangers par E PEREZ VERA professeur a l'Universidad Nacional de Educacion a Distancia Madrid To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here Harold D. Lasswell: An Annotated Bibliography Rodney Muth, Mary M. Finley, Marcia F. Muth, 1990-07-31 Plight and Fate of Women During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2012-02-01 The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or disdain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services

Hague Yearbook of International Law / Annuaire de La Haye de Droit International, Vol. 23 (2010) Nikos Lavranos, Ruth A. Kok, 2019-03-25 The title of the Hague Yearbook of International Law reflects the close ties which have always existed between the AAA and the City of The Hague with its international law institutions and indicates the Yearbook's aim of devoting attention to developments taking place in the international law institutions based in The Hague. However, the Yearbook has a broader scope as well to offer a platform for review of new developments in the field of international law. As of the 2010 Volume, the Yearbook will be compiled by a new and expanded Editorial Board offering fresh ideas and a new approach. A newly established Advisory Board has also been added, including ICJ Judge Bruno Simma, Serge Brammertz, Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, ICTY, Jacomijn J. van Haersolte van Hof, advocate-advocaat at HaersolteHof and arbitrator, The Netherlands, and Professor Peter Hilpold, Innsbruck University, Austria. Sections have been created on public international law, private international law, international investment law, and international criminal law, containing in-depth articles on current issues. The breadth of the Yearbook's content thus offers an interesting and valuable illustration of the dynamic developments in the various sub-areas of international law.

The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law Amal Clooney, Philippa Webb, 2021-02-11 The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law brings together the diverse sources of international law that define the right to a fair trial in the context of criminal, as opposed to civil, administrative or other proceedings. The book provides a comprehensive explanation of what the right to a fair trial means in practice under international law and focuses on factual scenarios that practitioners and judges may face in court. Each of the book's fourteen chapters examines a component of the right to a fair trial as defined in Article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and reviews the case law of regional human rights courts, international criminal courts, as well as UN human rights bodies. Highlighting both consensus and divisions in the international jurisprudence in this area, this book provides an invaluable resource to practitioners and scholars dealing with breaches of one of the most fundamental human rights.
