Robbins, Timothy A. Judge, Robert Wayne Mondy, Joseph J. Martocchio, 2018 Choice, 2002 Women and Inequality in the 21st Century Brittany Slatton, Carla Brailey, 2019-05-17 Recent books have drawn attention to an unfinished gender revolution and the reversal of gender progress. However, this literature primarily focuses on gender inequality in the family and its effect on women's career and family choices. While an important topic, these works are critiqued for being particularly attentive to the concerns of middle-class heterosexual White women and ignoring or erasing the issues and experiences of the vast majority of women throughout the United States and other countries. Women and Inequality in the 21st Century is an edited collection that addresses this dearth in the current literature. This book examines the continued inequities navigated by women occupying marginalized social positions within a nexus of power relations. It addresses the experiences of immigrant women of color, aging women, normative gender constraints faced by lesbian and gender non-conforming individuals assigned the female gender at birth, religious constraints on women's sexual expression, and religious and ethnic barriers impeding access to equality for women across the globe. Contributors to this collection reflect varying fields of inquiry, including sociology, psychology, theology, history, and anthropology. Their works employ empirical research methods, hermeneutic analysis, and narrative to capture the unique gender experiences and negotiations of diverse 21st-century women. The Nigerian Academic Forum, 2008 Core Collection Baker Library, 1987 Nigerian Journal of Research and Production, 2008 Nigeria Journal of Business Administration, 2006 American Book Publishing Record, 2003

Business Essentials Ronald J. Ebert, Ricky W. Griffin, 1998 Appropriate for Introduction to Business. The revision of Essentials continues building on the key ideas of price and length. Instructors will now have time to cover all the necessary topics and also use the various support materials. The new briefer second edition continues to provide the essentials of business but also includes more updated current examples and references that help the student better apply his knowledge to real companies. Each chapter contains tables, photographs, and figures carefully chosen to illustrate in a visually appealing way the points and messages of the chapter. Important topics such as those presented in the following examples reinforce the essentials approach. Chapters 1 and 2 present business concepts to students and in Chapters 3, 4, 5 the legal, ethical, and global issues are introduced. Chapter 6, 7, 8 explore the management side and Chapters 9, 10 further discuss developing the human resource skills necessary to good employee relations. Chapter 12 expertly covers accounting and information systems. Chapters 13, 14, 15 combine the marketing aspects of producing goods and services. Chapters 16, 17 focus on the financial aspects of the banking, security, and investment community. Business Today Stephen P. Robbins, 2001 Stephen P. Robbins is a best-selling author of management and organizational behavior texts. In his new integrative, innovative introduction to business text Business Today, he uses a reader-friendly, conversational writing style. This new text is already receiving praise for its integrated emphasis on careers, e-business, technology, ethics, globalization, and other evolving issues. Robbins offers comprehensive coverage of traditional functions of business: marketing, management, accounting, finance, but with a fresh real world format covering the functions where it makes sense just as a business person would encounter them The innovative approach of business today reflects the immense changes that have occurred in business practices Robbins demonstrates that the new world of business is about identifying opportunities creating viable strategies building relationships and providing quality goods and services The Korean Journal of Policy Studies ,2015 Southern Economist ,2008
