- Manufacturing companies report three types of inventory on the balance sheet.
- Inventory (merchandise) for a company such as Best Buy (consumer electronics) includes all the costs necessary to purchase products and get them onto the store shelves.
- Most for-profit organizations can be described as belonging to one (or more) of three categories: merchandising companies, service companies, and manufacturing companies.
- Work in process inventory is composed of goods partially through the manufacturing process (not finished yet).
- Forever 21, Target, and Kohl's are all examples of merchandising companies.
- Service companies typically do not have an inventory account.
- Johnson & Johnson, a personal care products manufacturer, converts raw materials inventory into finished products.
- A law office, an advertising agency, and a hospital are all examples of service companies.
- Wholesalers buy products in bulk from producers, mark them up, and resell them to retailers.

(5 min.) S2-2

Management Accounting Carsten Berkau, 2023-09-25 Management Accounting is a textbook for business management study programmes. It covers the international syllabus of cost accounting and controlling on bachelor's and master's levels. Prof. Berkau has more than 25 years of teaching experience in Germany, UAS Osnabrück and at international universities in South Africa, Malaysia, China, the Netherlands and South Korea. The textbook strictly follows a case study based approach. All methods are discussed by easily understandable cases. The calculations demonstrate how to apply management accounting step by step. In the first chapters, the case study PENOR PLC about a British windows doors manufacturer explains the differences between financial accounting IFRSs and management accounting. In the next following sections, the textbook covers two points of view: 1. a controlling view with budgeting, cost volume profit analysis, degree of operating leverage, investment appraisal, mergers and cross border acquisitions and risk valuation Monte Carlo Simulation. 2. a cost accounting view that covers management accounting systems, flexible budgeting, cost allocation methods, performance measurement, monitoring, reporting, product calculation, manufacturing accounting, job order and process costing, activity based costing, target costing and contribution margin accounting. On the UVK website, numerous exam tasks with complete solutions, further study materials and links to video clips produced by Prof. Berkau are available for download. Solutions to Problems in
