adults Living Up The Street Gary Soto, 2012-06-27 In a prose that is so beautiful it is poetry we see the world of growing up and going somewhere through the dust and heat of Fresno's industrial side and beyond. It is a boy's coming of age in the barrio parochial school attending church public summer school and trying to fall out of love so he can join in a Little League baseball team. His is a clarity that rings constantly through the warmth and wry reality of these sometimes humorous sometimes tragic always human remembrances. A Summer Life Gary Soto, 1991-08-01 Gary Soto writes that when he was five what I knew best was at ground level. In this lively collection of short essays Soto takes his reader to a ground level perspective resreating in vivid detail the sights sounds smells and textures he knew growing up in his Fresno California neighborhood. The things of his boyhood tie it all together his Buddha splashed with gold the taps of his shoes and the engines of sparks that lived beneath my soles his worn tennies smelling of summer grass asphalt the moist sock breathing the defeat of baseball. The child's world is made up of small things small very important things.

Young Adult Literature and Culture Harry Eiss, 2009-03-26 This book offers a multifaceted approach to the world of young adults everything from Ray Schrock's use of Walter Dean Myers sports stories to discuss race relations and cultural politics to Joyce Litton's analysis of the highly popular Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants Quartet. The cover illustration is done by Joel Rudinger based on his experiences with the Inuit where he learned many of their legends and myths resulting in his own excellent work on Sedna the creation goddess a story filled with deep tragedy mystery and the world of the spirits. This mythic world slides into the discussion of Harry Eiss one that focuses on The Isis Trilogy best known of Monica Hughes many works who writes Science fiction and fantasy in particular are valid carriers of myth for the 20th century and most especially for young people Margaret Best and Susann deVries also give us literature that uses science. They begin The science fair project is the central metaphor and the reality in Paul Zindel's The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man in the Moon Marigolds 1970 Christopher Paul Curtis's Bucking the Sarge 2004 and Joyce Maynard's The Cloud Chamber 2005 After providing an overview science fiction Sally Sugarman offers a study of the entire genre. For this study two hundred and thirty nine high school students from two schools in Vermont and Massachusetts were surveyed Alethea K Helbig provides an overview of her important activities promoting literature for the young. She was a seminal scholar and educator when colleges and universities were just beginning to take the study of such literature seriously when English departments were initiating serious undergraduate and graduate classes in what previously had been seen as inferior literature. Her life itself provides us with an entertaining and historically valuable autobiographical account of a person at the center of the change that has taken and continues to take place Jerry Loving expands the horizons of the entire collection of essays providing a firsthand account of how the young are educated in China including a detailed history It begins I have been traveling to mainland China at least 4 to 6 times a year as a teacher or education evaluator since 2002 As the visits and years passed I watched the education system of China slowly improve to the level my schools were like when I went to school in the 50 s and 60 s
