Hukum Agraria Indonesia:

Administrative Courts in Indonesia Adriaan Bedner, 2001-06-20 In 1991 Indonesia introduced a system of administrative courts that was to contribute to establishing the rule of law in Indonesia and to provide recourse for citizens against unlawful administrative behaviour This book evaluates the performance of the administrative court system It explains why the courts were established in spite of the Indonesian state's authoritarian nature and why and to what extent the system is a Dutch legal transplant It analyses the jurisdictionary powers of the courts and how the courts have used them It then proceeds to explain the unbalanced nature of the record presented by analysing factors inside and outside the administrative court organisation which influence its performance These include budgetary deficits lack of training opportunities career manipulation corruption lack of government support and many other non legal issues Finally the author provides a number of recommendations for change many of which may also be of use to other developing countries

Property and Trust Law in Indonesia Eddy M. Leks, 2018-05-24 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of the law of property in Indonesia deals with the issues related to rights and interests in all kinds of property and assets immovable movable and personal property how property rights are acquired fiduciary mechanisms and security considerations Lawyers who handle transnational disputes and other matters concerning property will appreciate the explanation of specific terminology application and procedure An introduction outlining the essential legal cultural and historical considerations affecting property is followed by a discussion of the various types of property Further analysis describes how and to what extent legal subjects can have or obtain rights and interests in each type The coverage includes tangible and intangible property varying degrees of interest and the various ways in which property is transferred including the ramifications of appropriation expropriation and insolvency Facts are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance The book includes ample references to doctrine and cases as well as to relevant international treaties and conventions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for any practitioner faced with a property related matter Lawyers representing parties with interests in Indonesia will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative property law

Culture and International Law Hikmahanto Juwana, Jeffrey Thomas, Mohd Hazmi Mohd Rusli, Dhiana Puspitawati, 2019-09-03 In this era of globalization International Law plays a significant role in facing rapid development of various legal issues Cultural preservation has emerged as an important legal issue that should be considered by States This book consists of academic papers presented and discussed during the 9th International Conference of the Centre of International Law Studies 9th CILS Conference held in Malang Indonesia 2-3 October 2018 The title of the book represents the major theme of the conference Culture and International Law It is argued that along with globalization cultural preservation is slowly ignored by States Various papers presented in the book cover five topics cultural heritage cultural rights culture and economic activity culture and armed conflict and a general topic The authors of the papers are outstanding academics from various countries Lithuania United States of America Australia Thailand and Indonesia The conference was organized by Universitas Indonesia in collaboration with Brawijaya University This book aims to give a useful contribution to the existing literature on International Law specifically focussing on cultural issues from the perspective of cultural heritage and rights economic as well as armed conflict
