hybridity in the context of life writing Each chapter explores the very topical issue of how writers and artists combine two media in order to enhance the autobiographical narrative and experience of the reader It questions the position of images in relation to text both on the page and in terms of the power balance between media It also shows how hybridity operates beyond a semantic and cultural balance of power as the combination of text and images are able to produce content that would not have been possible separately Including a range of life writing and different visual media from paintings and photography to graphic memoirs and social media this edited collection investigates the point at which an image whether fixed or moving enters the autobiographical act and confronts the verbal form HandiLand Elizabeth A.

Wheeler,2019-08-21 HandiLand looks at young adult novels fantasy series graphic memoirs and picture books of the last 25 years in which characters with disabilities take center stage for the first time These books take what others regard as weaknesses for instance Harry Potter s headaches or Hazel Lancaster s oxygen tank and redefine them as part of the hero s journey HandiLand places this movement from sidekick to hero in the political contexts of disability rights movements in the United States the United Kingdom and Ghana Elizabeth A Wheeler invokes the fantasy of HandiLand an ideal society ready for young people with disabilities before they get there as a yardstick to measure how far we ve come and how far we still need to go toward the goal of total inclusion The book moves through the public spaces young people with disabilities have entered including schools nature and online communities As a disabled person and parent of children with disabilities Wheeler offers an inside look into families who collude with their kids in shaping a better world Moving funny and beautifully written HandiLand The Crippest Place on Earth is the definitive study of disability in contemporary literature for young readers
