If We Can Put A Man On The Moon Getting Big Things Done In Government:

If We Can Put a Man on the Moon William D. Eggers, John O'Leary, 2009-11-19 The American people are frustrated with their government dismayed by a series of high profile failures Iraq Katrina the financial meltdown that seems to just keep getting longer Yet our nation has a proud history of great achievements victory in World War II our national highway system welfare reform the moon landing We need more successes like these to reclaim government's legacy of competence In If We Can Put a Man on the Moon William Eggers and John O'Leary explain how to do it The key Understand and avoid the common pitfalls that trip up public sector leaders during the journey from idea to results The authors identify pitfalls including The Partial Map Trap Fumbling handoffs throughout project execution The Tolstoy Syndrome Seeing only the possibilities you want to see Design Free Design Designing policies for passage through the legislature not for implementation The Overconfidence Trap Creating unrealistic budgets and timelines The Complacency Trap Failing to recognize that a program needs change At a time of unprecedented challenges this book with its abundant examples and hands on advice is the essential guide to making our government work better A must read for every public official this book will be of interest to anyone who cares about the future of democracy

The Nature of Environmental Stewardship

Johnny Wei-Bing Lin, 2016-02-08 Environmental issues appear deceptively simple science tells us what the problems are and how to solve them and for Christians the Bible motivates us to care for creation And yet both in society in general as well as in the Christian church in particular we cannot seem to agree on what to do regarding environmental issues In this book climate scientist Johnny Wei Bing Lin argues that determining the content of environmental stewardship far from being a straightforward exercise is a difficult and complex endeavor He sets forth a general taxonomy drawing from worldviews ethical theories science epistemology science policy studies politics and economics that can help us better understand what excellent creation care consists of and how to bridge the differences people have regarding environmental issues

John F. Kennedy and the Race to the Moon J. Logsdon, 2011-02-10 While there are many biographies of JFK and accounts of the early years of US space efforts this book uses primary source material and interviews with key participants to provide a comprehensive account of how the actions taken by JFK's administration have shaped the course of the US space program over the last 45 years Bodies out of Place Barbara Harris Combs, 2022-09-01 Bodies out of Place asserts that anti Black racism is not better than it used to be it is just performed in more nuanced ways Barbara Harris Combs argues that racism is dynamic so new theories are needed to help expose it The Bodies out of Place BOP theory she advances in the book offers such a corrective lens Interrogating several recent racialized events the Central Park birding incident the killing of Ahmaud Arbery sleeping while Black occurrences and others Combs demonstrates how the underlying belief that undergirds each encounter is a false presumption that Black bodies in certain contexts are out of place Within these examples she illustrates how even amid professions to color blindness fixed attitudes about where Black bodies belong in what positions at what time and with whom still predominate Combs describes a long historical pattern of White pushback against Black advancement and illuminates how each of the various forms of pushback is aimed at social control and regulation of Black bodies She describes overt and covert attempts to push Black bodies back into their presumed place in US society While the pushback takes many forms each works to paint a narrative to justify rationalize and excuse continuing violence against Black bodies Equally important Combs celebrates the resilient Black agency that has resisted this subjugation
