Teacher Education and Institutional Change in South Africa Glenda Kruss, 2008 In 1994 the South African teacher education landscape was fragmented across a wide variety of institutional sites The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 Language has played a pivotal role in societal transformation in postcolonial Africa towards the creation of globally competitive knowledge societies however so far this role has been under researched and under estimated This volume addresses this gap in the literature by bringing together a team of globally recognised scholars to explore the effect of language on African postcolonial societies and how it has contributed to achieving mental decolonisation A range of languages are explored both imported ex colonial and indigenous African and case studies from different spheres of public discourse are investigated from universities to legal settings Demonstrating that multilingualism is a resource for rather than barrier to successful transformation this book brings the intellectualisation and institutionalisation of African languages to the forefront of development discourse and provides an insightful snap shot of how current academic research public discourse political activism and social community engagement have contributed to societal transformation in South Africa Commercial Directory ,2000
