Class Dynamics in Later Life Marvin Formosa,2009 Class Dynamics in Later Life examines the extent that older persons despite their estrangement from the productive process are still dynamically engaged in class structuring and action. It argues that class remains a key differentiating factor in older people's lives. Contrary to conventional assumptions which presuppose that class mobility cannot occur unless retirees re-enter the labour market, the book argues that class formation is truly alive and kicking in later life.

Family Formation Among Youth in Europe Mirza Emirhafizovic, Tali Heiman, Marton Medgyesi, Catarina Pinheiro Mota, Smiljka Tomanovic, Sue Vella, 2022-06-01. This book, which has been created in the framework of the EU-funded COST Action YOUNG IN CA17114, sheds a light on the structural disadvantages and opportunities in family formation among youth, offering an insight into the relevant contextual factors in eleven countries. Analyzing demographic trends and socioeconomic settings including normative and institutional frameworks that focus on family policies, the authors have identified and presented the peculiarities of the transition to parenthood as well as common challenges that young people face in that process. Endorsements: Gathering rich and novel information from 11 European countries that have been so far neglected in family formation studies, this volume is an enlightening reading for policy makers, social policy students, and young people themselves. Anu Toots, Tallinn University, Estonia, and COST Action YOUNG IN. This book brings together scholars from all over Europe to provide an updated account of demographic change and family formation in Europe. The book is quite impressive both in its scope and depth and should be an essential read for those interested in the demographic challenges that our countries are facing. Johannes Bergh, Institute for Social Research, Oslo, Norway.
