

HARMONIZATION OF ISLAMIC LAW IN NATIONAL LEGAL SYSTEM: A COMPARATIVE STUDY BETWEEN INDONESIAN LAW AND MALAYSIAN LAW

Yeni Salma Barlinti¹

Abstract

This article compares Indonesia legal system and Malaysian legal system. The government legalized Islamic law in national legislations, which are in effect for Muslim people. To facilitate dispute settlement, there is a religious court to solve Islamic dispute based on Islamic law. The existence of Islamic law in Indonesia and Malaysia has similarity and differentiation. The similarities among others are: the Muslim-majority in both countries pushes the government to put Islamic law into force, Islamic law must be written into constitution or legislation. It is needed to have legal basis when performing Islamic law, the existence of religious court is very important in dispute settlement related to Islamic law. The influence of western legal system is very strong in national legal system. Nevertheless, the western legal system differs substantially from Islamic legal system, and Islamic law was implemented limitedly based upon western legislation. It was limited to family law. While the differentiations are: the way of implementation of western legal system into national legal system and the form of legislation. Indonesia has one legislation, which is in effect to all of Indonesia people. On the contrary, Malaysia has many enactments, which are different from one to another in each negeri.

Keywords: Indonesia, Malaysia, Islamic law, Legal systems, Comparative study.

I. Introduction

Islamic law is the law regulates many fields. This law in some countries has become legal system such as Egypt and Saudi Arabia, but in others it is just part of national legal system. At the latter, Indonesia and Malaysia were countries use Islamic Law as part of national legal system. It can be seen in national legislations and court system. The government legalized Islamic law in national legislations, which are in effective for Muslim people. To facilitate dispute settlement, there is religious court to solve Islamic dispute based on Islamic Law.

I make comparison between Indonesian legal system and Malaysian legal system due to some reasons. First, Indonesia and Malaysia has Muslim-majority citizen. Indonesia as the world's largest Muslim-majority country has 87.2% Muslim

A Critique of Creative Shari'ah Compliance in the Islamic Finance

Industry Ahmad A Alkhamees, 2017-09-18 Ahmad Alkhamees defines Creative Shari'ah compliance as compliance with the letter but not the objectives of Shari'ah In recent years Islamic finance industry practises have come under scrutiny with strong critiques levelled against many institutions that claim to provide Shari'ah compliant products and services which in fact undermine the spirit and the objectives of Shari'ah This book significantly contributes to the sphere of Islamic finance in three main ways First it critically appraises justifications of creative Shari'ah compliance practises Second it examines how Shari'ah supervisory board SSB governance practises and the inconsistent fatwas issued by SSBs contribute to the issue of creative Shari'ah compliance Most importantly it suggests regulatory mechanisms which regulators can employ in Islamic countries such as Saudi Arabia and in secular countries such as the United Kingdom to deal with the issue of creative Shari ah compliance The Application of Hudud in Indonesia Manotar Tampubolon,2025-10-22 This timely and thought provoking book takes a close look at how hudud punishments those set by Islamic law are interpreted negotiated and put into practice within Indonesia s diverse legal landscape Focusing specifically on Aceh the only province allowed special autonomy to enforce Islamic criminal law the book delves into the complex tensions that arise between national laws local religious goals and international human rights standards By combining legal analysis case studies and a sociopolitical perspective it offers a deep understanding of how Islamic principles are adapted in a modern democratic context The primary audience includes legal scholars academics in Islamic studies and university students who are eager to grasp the practical and theoretical challenges of weaving Sharia based penal codes into a constitutional framework By shedding light on the relationship between religious authority and state power this work adds to the ongoing discussions about legal pluralism constitutionalism and the role of Islam in public law within today s Muslim majority societies Shari'a As Discourse Lisbet Christoffersen,Jørgen S. Nielsen,2016-04-01 This volume exposes some of the various issues raised in relation to Muslim communities in Europe by putting the intellectual and legal traditions into dialogue It brings together a number of scholars of Shari a and Islamic law with counterparts from the parallel European disciplines of hermeneutics philosophy and jurisprudence to explore how the processes of theological legal thinking have been expressed and are being expressed in a more or less common intellectual framework It provides a valuable reference for all those interested in exploring how Muslims and non Muslims view Shari a law looking at ways the European legal systems can provide some form of accommodation with Muslim customs Legal Aspects of Economic Integration in Africa Richard Frimpong Oppong,2011-07-07 Richard Frimpong Oppong challenges the view that effective economic integration in Africa is hindered by purely socio economic political and infrastructural problems Inspired by the comparative experiences of other regional economic communities and imbued with insights from constitutional public and private international law he argues that even if the socio economic political and infrastructural challenges were to disappear the state of existing laws would hinder any progress Using a relational framework as the fulcrum of analyses he demonstrates that in Africa s economic integration processes community state inter state and inter community legal relations have neither been carefully thought through nor situated on a solid legal framework and that attempts made to provide legal framework have been incomplete and sometimes grounded on questionable assumptions To overcome these problems and aid the economic integration agenda that is essential for Africa s long term economic growth and development the author proposes radical reforms to community and national laws Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,2002 Global Crime Philip L.
