Here There Or Everywhere Assessing The Geographic Scope:

Geographical Information Systems in Assessing Natural Hazards Alberto Carrara, Fausto Guzzetti, 2013-04-17 The 16 contributions to Geographical Information Systems in Assessing Natural Hazards report on GIS investigations into landslides floods volcanic eruptions earthquakes and groundwater pollution hazards Current methods for predicting extreme events are critically discussed the emphasis being on the intrinsic complexity of this type of operation requiring many spatial data long historical records and sound models of the physical processes involved Within this context the potentials and limitations of GIS are addressed in terms of data acquisition spatial data structures and modelling for simulation of the causal phenomena Geographic Information Systems in Assessing Natural Hazards will help investigators in both public and private institutions to evaluate the actual effectiveness of GIS in coping with natural disasters and to develop new strategies for projects aimed at the assessment and mitigation of the effects of such catastrophic events Official Report of Debates Council Of Europe Parliamentary Assembly Staff, Europe. Council of, Parliame, 1998-12-01 Global Governance and Democracy Jan Wouters, Antoon Braeckman, Matthias Lievens, Emilie Bécault, 2015-09-25 Globalization needs effective global governance The important question of whether this governance can also become democratic is however the subject of a political and academic debate that began only recently This multidisciplinary book aims to move this conversation forward by drawing insights from international relations political theory international law and international political economy Focusing on global environmental economic security and human rights governance it sheds new light on the democratic deficit of existing global governance structures and proposes a number of tools to overcome it Resources in Education ,1972-10 Research in Education ,1972 Research Handbook on Intellectual Property Exhaustion and Parallel Imports Irene Calboli, Edward Lee, 2016-06-24 From the Americas to the European Union Asia Pacific and Africa countries around the world are facing increased pressure to clarify the application of intellectual property exhaustion This wide ranging Research Handbook explores the questions that pose themselves as a result Should exhaustion apply at the national regional or international level Should parallel imports be considered lawful imports Should copyright patent and trademark laws follow the same regime Should countries attempt to harmonize their approaches To what extent should living matters and self replicating technologies be subject to the principle of exhaustion To what extent have the rise of digital goods and the Internet of things redefined the concept of exhaustion in cyberspace The Handbook offers insights to the challenges surrounding these questions and highlights how one answer does not fit all Basic Principles of Geopolitics and History Debabrata Sen, 1975 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1955-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Rethinking Post-Cold War Russian-Latin American Relations Vladimir Rouvinski, Victor Jeifets, 2022-06-07 Today there is plenty of evidence that Russia has become a prominent external actor in Latin America and the Caribbean Yet few books have attempted to better understand the reasons behind Russia's return and Moscow's continuous engagement in the region In order to fill the gap this volume offers the first interdisciplinary study of Russian Latin American relations after the end of the Cold War Across 16 chapters leading experts from Russia Europe the United States and Latin America collectively re-examine the Soviet legacy to reveal the conditions in which Russia operates today and identify the key trends of contemporary Russian relations with this part of the world The book then moves on to provide a detailed case study analysis of Russia's bilateral relations with Venezuela Cuba Mexico Brazil Argentina and Colombia identifying the most critical dimensions of Russian engagement Rethinking Post Cold War Russian Latin American Relations allows readers to identify the fundamental driving forces of Russia's renewed commitment to the area its strategies and experiences The book will be of interest to readers of international relations and area studies historians of modern Latin America migration studies political economy and any political scientists interested in Russian decision making

Geographies of Muslim Identities Peter Hopkins, 2016-04-15 In recent years geographies of identities including those of ethnicity religion race and gender have formed an increasing focus of contemporary human geography The events of September 11th 2001 particularly illustrated the ways in which identities can be transformed across time and space by both global and local events of a social cultural political and economic nature Such transformations have also demonstrated the temporal and spatial construction of hate and fear and of increasing incidences of Islamophobia through the construction of Muslims as the Other As the social scientific study of religion continues to be marginalized within mainstream scholarship there remains an important gap in the literature This timely book addresses this gap by collecting a range of cutting edge contributions from the social cultural political historical and economic sub-disciplines of geography together with writings from gender studies cultural studies and leisure studies where research has revealed a strong spatial dimension to the construction representation contestation and reworking of Muslim identities The contributors illustrate the ways in which such identities are constructed represented negotiated and contested in everyday life in a wide variety of international contexts focusing upon issues connected with diaspora gender and belonging
