Wilkinson, 2020-01-03 In this book film scholars anthropologists and critics discuss star making in the contemporary Hindi language film industry in India also known as Bollywood Drawing on theories of stardom globalization transnationalism gender and new media studies the chapters explore contemporary Hindi film celebrity With the rise of social media and India s increased engagement in the global economy Hindi film stars are forging their identities not just through their on screen images and magazine and advertising appearances but also through an array of media platforms product endorsements setting fashion trends and involvement in social causes Focusing on some of the best known Indian stars since the late 1990s the book discusses the multiplying avenues for forging a star identity the strategies industry outsiders adopt to become stars and the contradictions and conflicts that such star making produces It addresses questions such as What traits of contemporary stars have contributed most to longevity and success in the industry How has filmmaking technology and practice altered the nature of stardom How has the manufacture of celebrity altered with the recent appearance of commodity culture in India and the rise of a hyper connected global economy By doing so it describes a distinct moment in India and in the world in which stars and stardom are drawn more closely than ever into the vital events of global culture Hindi films and their stars are part of the national and global entertainment circuits that are bigger and more competitive than ever As such this is a timely book creates opportunities for examining stardom in other industries and provides fruitful cross cultural perspectives on star identities today Grounded in rigorous scholarship as well as a palpable love of Hindi cinema this collection of 19 essays on a dizzying array of contemporary Hindi film stars makes for an informative thought provoking illuminating and most of all a joyful read Pushing boundaries of not only global Star Studies but also film theory as a whole this de colonised and de colonising volume is a must read for film scholars students and cinephiles Dr Sunny Singh Senior Lecturer Creative Writing and English Literature Sir John Cass School of Art Architecture Design London Metropolitan University A wide ranging overview of Hindi cinema s filmi firmament today focussing on its most intriguing and brightest burning stars The variety of approaches to stardom and celebrity by both established and upcoming scholars reveals a web of interconnecting stories and concerns that provide fascinating new insights into the workings of today s Hindi film industry while shining fresh light on contemporary India and the world we live in Professor Rosie Thomas Centre for Research and Education in Arts and Media CREAM College of Design Creative and Digital Industries University of Westminster Business Communication VK Jain | Omprakash Biyani, 2007-11 For B Com BCA BBA MBA and as per the UGC Model Curriculum A Subaltern History of the Indian Diaspora in Singapore John Solomon, 2016-03-31 Untouchable migrants made up a substantial proportion of Indian labour migration into Singapore in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries During this period they were subject to forms of caste prejudice and discrimination that powerfully reinforced their identities as untouchables overseas Today however untouchability has disappeared from the public sphere and has been replaced by other notions of identity leaving unanswered questions as to how and when this occurred The untouchable migrant is also largely absent from popular narratives of the past This book takes the disappearance as a starting point to examine a history of untouchable migration amongst Indians who arrived in Singapore from its modern founding as a British colony in the early nineteenth century through to its independence in 1965 Using oral history records archival sources colonial ethnography newspapers and interviews this book examines the lives of untouchable migrants through their everyday experience in an overseas multi ethnic environment It examines how these migrants who in many ways occupied the bottom rungs of their communities and colonial society framed transnational issues of identity and social justice in relation to their experiences within the broader Indian diaspora in Singapore The book traces the manner in which untouchable identities evolved and then receded in response to the dramatic social changes brought about by colonialism war and post colonial nationhood By focusing on a subaltern group from the past this study provides an alternative history of

Indian migration to Singapore and a different perspective on the cultural conversations that have taken place between India and Singapore for much of the island's modern history AKASHVANI All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi ,1981-08-02
