Handbook Of Landscape Archaeology Beelo:

Handbook of Landscape Archaeology Bruno David, Julian Thomas, 2016-06-03 Over 80 archaeologists from four continents create a benchmark volume of the ideas and practices of landscape archaeology covering the theoretical and the practical the research and conservation and encasing the term in a global framework The Oxford Handbook of Industrial Archaeology Eleanor Casella, Michael Nevell, Hanna Steyne, 2022-05-12 Representing the first substantial English language text on Industrial Archaeology in a decade this handbook comes at a time when the global impact of industrialization is being re assessed in terms of its legacy of climate change mechanization urbanization the forced migration of peoples and labour relations Critical debates around the beginning of a new geological era The Anthropocene have emerged over the last decade This approach interrogates the widespread exploitation of natural resources that forged industrialization from its early emergence in 18th century northern Europe to its contemporary ubiquity environmental impacts and social legacy within our globalized world Through a broad international and multi period set of chapters this volume explores the complex origins processes and development of industrialization through both its physical remains and human consequences both the good and the bad It provides a diverse material framework for understanding our modern world from its industrial origins through its future paths in the 21st century The ^AOxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art Bruno David, Ian J. McNiven, 2018-10-17 Written by leading experts in the field The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Rock Art showcases the latest advances in methods and theories of rock art research This volume appeals to rock art archaeology and anthropology students and scholars with interests in symbolic practices and processes visual arts cultural heritage management and Indigenous studies The Routledge Handbook of the Archaeology of Urbanism in Italy in the Age of Roman Expansion Fabio Colivicchi, Myles McCallum, 2024-05-17 The Routledge Handbook of the Archaeology of Urbanism in Italy in the Age of Roman Expansion explores trends in urbanism across Italy in the period when Rome extended its power across the entire peninsula Sicily Sardinia and Corsica Chapters present the most up to date archaeological data in the first broad and detailed treatment of this topic superseding traditional academic particularism They present a significant re evaluation of the process of Roman imperialism and the role of urbanization within it Particular attention is paid to evidence for local agency in different regions and at different sites but general trends are also highlighted Various types of urban sites are examined including Indigenous urban centers that pre date Rome s conquest colonies both Greek and Roman small centers in the hinterlands of larger urban entities and the symbiotic relationship between urban centers and their rural territories This volume challenges the existence of a standardized Roman model imposed on Rome s vanquished enemies through conquest and highlights that this was a period of intense experimentation Archaeological data are used to challenge traditional text based historiographic models and reveal the complex interplay and tensions between Roman imperial control local and regional traditions and broader Mediterranean trends This book is of importance to archaeologists and ancient historians working on urbanism and Roman Imperialism as well as those interested in early urbanism in the Western Mediterranean and Europe and the comparative study of imperialism and colonialism across geographical areas and historical periods The Oxford Handbook of the European Iron Age Colin Haselgrove, Katharina Rebay-Salisbury, Peter S. Wells, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the European Iron Age presents to students scholars and interested general readers a broad overview of current understanding of the archaeology of Europe from 1000 BC through to the early historic periods Body Parts and Bodies Whole Katharina Rebay-Salisbury, Marie Louise Stig Sørensen, Jessica Hughes, 2010 This volume grew out of an interdisciplinary discussion held in the context of the Leverhulme funded project Changing Beliefs in the Human Body through which the image of the body in pieces soon emerged as a potent site of attitudes about the body and associated practices in many periods Archaeologists routinely encounter parts of human and animal bodies in their excavations Such fragmentary evidence has often been created through accidental damage and the passage of time nevertheless it can also signify a deliberate and meaningful act of fragmentation As a fragment a part may acquire a distinct meaning through its enchainment relationship to the whole or alternatively it may be used in a more straightforward manner to represent the whole or even act as stand in for other variables This collection of papers puts bodily fragmentation into a long term historical perspective The temporal spread of the papers collected here indicates both the consistent importance and the varied perception of body parts in the archaeological record of Europe and the Near East By bringing case studies together from a range of locations and time periods each chapter brings a different insight to the role of body parts and body wholes and explores the status of the body in different cultural contexts Many of the papers deal directly with the physical remains of the dead body but the range of practices and representations covered in this volume confirm the sheer variability of treatments of the body throughout human history Every one of the contributions shows how looking at how the human body is divided into pieces or parts can give us deeper insights into the beliefs of the particular society which produced these practices and representations Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria Saramago, 2023-09-05 The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art activism and critique Fields include literature performance film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity energy humanities queer trans studies and infrastructure studies among others This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary

Irish Late Iron Age Equestrian Equipment in its Insular and Continental Context Rena Maguire,2021-12-23 This is the first practical archaeological study of Irish Iron Age horsemanship The horse and associated equipment were very much at the heart of the social changes set in motion by contact with the Roman Empire the examination of the snaffles and bits allows us to bring the people of the Late Iron Age in Ireland into focus

Lucan's Imperial World Laura Zientek,Mark Thorne,2020-02-06 These new essays comprise the first collective study of Lucan and his epic poem that focuses specifically on points of contact between his text and the cultural literary and historical environments in which he lived and wrote The Bellum Civile Lucan's poetic narrative of the monumental civil war between Julius Caesar and Pompey Magnus explores the violent foundations of the Roman principate and the Julio-Claudian dynasty The poem composed more than a century later during the reign of Nero thus recalls the past while being very much a product of its time This volume offers innovative readings that seek to interpret Lucan's epic in terms of the contemporary politics philosophy literature rhetoric geography and cultural memory of the author's lifetime In doing so these studies illuminate how approaching Lucan and his text in light of their contemporary environments enriches our understanding of author text and context individually and in conversation with each other

The Oxford Handbook of Roman Britain Martin Millett,Louise Revell,Alison Jane Moore,2016 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online Roman Britain is a critical area of research within the provinces of the Roman empire Within the last 15-20 years the study of Roman Britain has been transformed through an enormous amount of new and interesting work which is not reflected in the mainstream literature

The Oxford Handbook of Neolithic Europe Chris Fowler,Jan Harding,Daniela Hofmann,2015-03-26 The Neolithic a period in which the first sedentary agrarian communities were established across much of Europe has been a key topic of archaeological research for over a century However the variety of evidence across Europe the range of languages in which research is carried out and the way research traditions in different countries have developed makes it very difficult for both students and specialists to gain an overview of continent-wide trends The Oxford Handbook of Neolithic Europe provides the first comprehensive geographically extensive thematic overview of the European Neolithic from Iberia to Russia and from Norway to Malta offering both a general introduction and a clear exploration of key issues and current debates surrounding evidence and interpretation Chapters written by leading experts in the field examine topics such as the movement of plants animals ideas and people including recent trends in the application of genetics and isotope analyses cultural change from the first appearance of farming to the first metal artefacts domestic architecture subsistence material culture monuments and burial and other treatments of the dead In doing so the volume also considers the history of research and sets out agendas and themes for future work in the field
