The Outline of Knowledge: The history of the world James Albert Richards, 1924 Organizing the Green World: A Conceptual History of Botanical Classification Tod F. Stuessy, 2025-09-02 This book focuses on plant systematics and evolution with special interest on the history and philosophy of botanical classification Tracing the history of how humans have dealt with ordering the plant world is very much a glimpse of how human culture and science have progressed over the past 2000 years The objective in this book is to present ideas on plant classification beginning with classical Greek and Roman scholars through the Middle Ages into the Renaissance and finally to the modern 21st century Significant quantitative methods in classification have originated within the past 70 years which have never before been integrated with previous historical perspectives Most textbooks of systematic botany contain an historical introduction or perhaps a chapter on the history of classification but this book presents much greater detail on the classifications themselves and the cultural dimensions of the different time periods Biographical detail is also provided to give a better appreciation of the individual botanists who have contributed new ideas in the search for maximally predictive systems

Samuel Joseph Agnon, Psychoanalysis and Jewish History

David Aberbach,2025-09-12 Samuel Joseph Agnon Psychoanalysis and Jewish History A Comparative Study compares the writings of Samuel Joseph Agnon 1887 1970 with other writers including Gustav Flaubert Franz Kafka D H Lawrence and Carl Gustav Jung as well as his great Hebrew predecessors Mendele Mocher Sefraim and Chaim Nachman Bialik who drew on the ancient Jewish biblical and rabbinic tradition in creating a modern secular literature Through close readings of Agnon s fiction in comparison with some of his great contemporaries the reader comes to a new appreciation of the richness and psychological depth of modern Hebrew literary art and its roots in ancient Jewish history and literature of Agnon as a major figure bridging the traditional culture of the pre 1939 East European Jews with the modern world of Hebrew fiction amid tumultuous historical change as its centre shifted in the early 20th century from Eastern Europe to Tel Aviv and of the centrality of Hebrew literature in the rise of modern Jewish nationalism as anti Semitism grew This book is of particular value to students of Hebrew and Comparative Literature and of psychoanalysis and the sociology of literature but it is written clearly and without jargon and has much interest to the general reader
