Masculinities in Mid-Twentieth-Century Irish Fiction and Culture, 1931-1965 Loic Wright, 2025-09-29 Masculinities in Mid Twentieth Century Irish Fiction and Culture 1931 1965 is a critical analysis of the construction consolidation and regulation of post colonial Irish masculinity as evidenced by Irish fiction published during the mid twentieth century Investigating the years of the Irish Free State and the Republic of Ireland this book uses the years preceding the enactment of Bunreacht na h Éireann the Irish Constitution in 1937 and the years following the First Programme for Economic Expansion in 1958 as its span for research The analysis in this book incorporates contextual work on the masculinities of election rhetoric Church and State visions of an idealised Irish masculinity and the role of popular culture and fiction in promoting or rejecting official versions of Irish manhood Therein this book crucially analyses both critically acclaimed Irish authors such as Kate O'Brien John McGahern and Elizabeth Bowen alongside lesser known writers who fell victim to the mid century's rigorous culture of censorship such as M J Farrell Norah Hoult and John Broderick Wright's research in this book provides a holistic approach to scrutinising the construction of post colonial Irish masculinity including analysis on drinking culture civil service employment queer relationships and the value of violence in masculine currencies

Detoxing Masculinity in Anglophone Literature and Culture Sara Martín, M. Isabel Santaulària, 2023-03-07 This edited volume rethinks Masculinity Studies by breaking away from the notion of the perpetual crisis of masculinity It argues that not enough has been done to distinguish patriarchy from masculinity and proposes to detox masculinity by offering a collection of positive representations of men in fictional and non fictional texts The editors show how ideas of hegemonic and toxic masculinity have been too fixed on the exploration of dominance and subservience and too little on the men and the male characters in fiction who behave following other ethical personal and socially accepted patterns Bringing together research from different periods and genres this collection provides broad multidisciplinary insights into alternative representations of masculinity

Masculinities and Culture John Beynon, 2002 What is masculinity Is masculinities a more appropriate term How are masculinities socially culturally and historically shaped How are particular masculinities created enacted and represented in specific settings How can masculinities best be researched and theorized Masculinities and Culture explores how masculinities or ways of being a man are anchored in time and place the products of socio historical and cultural circumstances It examines the emergence of a masculinity fit for Empire in the mid to late nineteenth century and by way of contrast the more recent media driven commercial New Man and New Lad masculinity The author considers some of the media discourses shaping masculinities today and the formation of specific masculinities in specific settings such as prisons hospitals and schools which both define and in turn are defined by strongly held conceptions of acceptable masculine behaviour He concludes by reviewing a range of ways in which masculinities might be researched from fieldwork and auto biographical and life history approaches through to semiotics and the use of both film and literary texts This lively text provides a comprehensive introduction to contemporary debates concerning masculinities as gendered constructions along with the means of researching and theorizing them

Culture and Identity: Unveiling the Essence of Modern African Men Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-21 In a world grappling with the complexities of gender and identity Culture and Identity Unveiling the Essence of Modern African Men offers a profound exploration of masculinity in Africa This comprehensive book delves into the dynamic interplay between tradition and change shedding light on the evolving definitions of manhood in a rapidly transforming continent Through a nuanced analysis of hegemonic masculinity the book unveils the power structures and cultural expectations that shape men's lives in Africa It examines how these norms influence men's behaviors relationships and access to opportunities The book also explores the challenges and possibilities for subverting hegemonic masculinity and promoting more inclusive and equitable forms of manhood Furthermore the book investigates the multifaceted relationship between masculinity and power dynamics It examines how masculinity intersects with issues of class race and ethnicity shaping men's access to resources opportunities and decision making The book also sheds light on the role of masculinity in perpetuating violence both in the public and private spheres and offers insights into promoting non violent masculinities Beyond these core themes the book explores masculinity in various domains of life including work education health fatherhood and media representations It examines the unique challenges and opportunities that African men face in these domains and highlights promising initiatives aimed at promoting gender equality and empowering men as agents of change With a keen eye for detail and a commitment to social justice this book provides a comprehensive understanding of African masculinities It challenges stereotypes disrupts simplistic narratives and invites readers to engage in a critical reflection on the role of masculinity in shaping African societies Culture and Identity Unveiling the Essence of Modern African Men is an essential resource for scholars policymakers activists and anyone seeking a deeper understanding of gender relations social change and the future of Africa It offers a unique perspective on the complexities of African masculinities and their implications for a more just and equitable world If you like this book write a review on google books

Male Roles, Masculinities and Violence Ingeborg Breines, Ingrid Eide, Unesco, 2000 This book is based on an expert group meeting entitled Male Roles and Masculinities in the Perspective of a Culture of Peace which was organised by UNESCO in Oslo Norway in 1997 the first international discussion of the connections between men and masculinity and peace and war The group consisted of researchers activists policy makers and administrators and the aim of the meeting was to formulate practical suggestions for change Chapters in the book consist of both regional case studies and social science research on the connections of traditional masculinity and patriarchy to violence and peace building The Culture of Peace initiatives in this book show how violence is ineffective and the book contests the views in the socialisation of boy children
