Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Renu Modi,Fantu Cheru,2013-08-08 The subject of food security and land issues in Africa has become one of increased importance and contention over recent years In particular the focus has shifted to the role new global South donors especially India China and Brazil are playing in shaping African agriculture through their increased involvement and investment in the continent Approaching the topic through the framework of South South co operation this highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented Do these investments have the potential to create new opportunities to improve local living standards transfer new technology and knowhow to African producers and reverse the persistent productivity decline in African agriculture Or will they simply aggravate the problem of food insecurity by accelerating the process of land alienation and displacement of local people from their land Topical and comprehensive Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Fantu Cheru,Renu Modi, This highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented Topical and comprehensive Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades Globalization and Agriculture Miguel Rocha de Sousa,Zander Navarro,Antônio Márcio

Buainain,2017-11-08 Globalization and Agriculture Redefining Unequal Development focuses on the development of national agriculture of nine countries in Latin America Africa and Asia from two different and complementary angles One angle is the opportunities created by globalization for agricultural production and how the countries have dealt with the expansion of the world as a consequence of the world market The other angle is the social and economic consequences of globalization for agricultural and rural development The case studies included in this book prove that the contradictory meanings referred above are indeed representative of different facets and features of globalization Forging New Partnerships, Breaching New Frontiers Rejaul Karim Laskar,2023-02-06 The ten years of UPA rule has been a crucial passage in the evolution of India s foreign policy and yet this period has been until now curiously understudied This book bridges this puzzling gap in the literature Sexual Violence as a Weapon of War? Maria Eriksson Baaz,Professor Maria Stern,2013-05-09 All too often in conflict situations rape is referred to as a weapon of war a term presented as self explanatory through its implied storyline of gender and warring In this provocative but much needed book Eriksson Baaz and Stern challenge the dominant understandings of sexual violence in conflict and post conflict settings Reading with and against feminist analyses of the interconnections between gender warring violence and militarization the authors address many of the thorny issues inherent in the arrival of sexual violence on the global security agenda Based on original fieldwork in the Democratic Republic of the Congo as well as research material from other conflict zones Sexual Violence as a Weapon of War challenges the recent prominence given to sexual violence bravely highlighting various problems with isolating sexual violence from other violence in war A much anticipated book by two acknowledged experts in the field on an issue that has become an increasingly important security legal and gender topic Africa Renewal ,2012 Malaŵi National Bibliography Library of the National Archives (Malawi),2015 World Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Abstracts ,1994 Agricultural Development in China and Africa Xiaoyun Li,2012 First Published in 2011 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The New York Times Index ,2003 International Trade Reporter ,2003 India-Africa Partnerships for Food Security and Capacity Building Renu Modi,Meera Venkatachalam,2021-03-08 This compendium showcases the ongoing trends and challenges in South South cooperation between India and select countries in Africa for achieving food security and poverty reduction Scholars and practitioners share diverse perspectives on the role of India s development compact aid trade private sector driven Foreign Direct Investments FDI and concessional Lines of Credit LOCs to the agricultural and agro processing sector in Africa India Africa cooperation also underscores that the sharing of knowledge and capabilities technical and financial along with North South partnerships through trilateral and multilateral mechanisms can upscale agriculture and agro processing sectors to centre stage the food security agenda and reduce poverty Arguments made through the volume critically highlight hegemonic neo liberal economic policies structural adjustment programmes import substitution practices and the denationalization of food production and illustrate the need for sustainable and cost effective agro ecological practices in the face of ongoing global challenges such as the climate emergency and degradation of biodiversity and habitats The axial questions addressed are how does cooperation between countries of the Global South India and Africa impact intra South trading capacity building and the investment landscape Scientists academics development professionals government officials NGOs and international organizations offer the readers empirical case studies policy perspectives the limitations and challenges and the way forward in an analytical manner

Food Security in Africa and Asia Henk Bakker,2011 Authored by an experienced agriculturalist with substantial field experience in developing countries this book adds to the literature on food security by proposing practical measures for improving plant based food security in Asia and Sub Saharan Africa Covering issues affecting food security this book discusses ways of measuring farmers resources strategies for action and an analysis of the challenges and problems faced concluding with a discussion of ways in which stakeholders could work better together This title is suitable for policy makers international development agencies NGO Extraterritorial investments in agriculture in Africa: the perspectives of China and South Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2020-11-30 The 2008 global food price crisis and the resurgence of food prices in 2010 2011 caused both widespread concern and expectations On the one hand countries whose food supply depends on procuring food from international markets saw food price spikes as threats to their national food security. On the other hand, investors saw in these price spikes an opportunity to make profitable investments in agriculture. Either as threat or opportunity, food price spikes raised interest in Africa whose lands are fertile and have unrealised potential. Concerns of a possible land acquisitions in Africa and in particular the impacts of Large Scale Land Based Investments in Agriculture (LSLBIA) on local communities became prominent policy and academic themes. Unfortunately, quantifying the phenomenon has proved hard due to the difficulty of finding empirical evidence. As a result, debates are either theoretical or based on anecdotal evidence. This publication thus explores a different path and explores the reasons why entities from China and South Africa were interested in investing in African agriculture. This publication examines the reasons why investors were interested in Africa and the relationship that these bear to The Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure of Land, Fisheries and Forests in the Context of National Food Security (the Voluntary Guidelines or VGGT). While primarily aimed at governments, the VGGT also contain important provisions that are applicable to the private sector. They focus on helping investors pursue their projects in ways that recognise and respect legitimate tenure rights and human rights. In addition, the VGGT also contain provisions and encourages good practices for responsible investment in land, forests and fisheries. The VGGT are a valuable tool for helping investors minimise risk while also safeguarding the rights of local communities. China and South Africa represent important sources of LSBIA in Africa although the bulk of such investment comes from western countries. Their investment may intensify in the future for a variety of reasons. First, China has the third largest land area in the world but its expansion through additional land use is limited. Second, the dual agricultural economy of South Africa is preventing commercial farming located in well-endowed areas from expanding into remote resource-poor areas where small-scale subsistence-based production is prevalent. This publication assesses the extent to which selected investors from China and South Africa and the governments of those countries have adopted the best practices represented by the VGGT in relation to LSBIA in

The need for agricultural research resources in the developing world cannot be underestimated but the availability of such resources is often poor due to lack of funding and investment. In order for Africa and other such developing countries to achieve productivity in agriculture vital to food security, poverty reduction and sustainable management of natural resources, investment and policy development needs to be assessed. This book, a joint effort from IFPRI, ILRI and the Kellogg Foundation, explores the importance of impact.
