Al Pacino Lawrence Grobel, 2006-12-01 For more than a quarter century Al Pacino has spoken freely and deeply with acclaimed journalist and bestselling author Lawrence Grobel on subjects as diverse as childhood acting and fatherhood Here for the first time are the complete conversations and shared observations between the actor and the writer the result is an intimate and revealing look at one of the most accomplished and private artists in the world Pacino grew up sharing a three room apartment in the Bronx with nine people in what he describes as his New York Huckleberry Finn childhood Raised mostly by his grandparents and his mother Pacino began drinking at age thirteen Shortly after he was admitted to the renowned High School for Performing Arts his classmates nicknamed him Marlon after Marlon Brando even though Pacino didn't know who Brando was Renowned acting coach Charlie Laughton saw Pacino when he was nineteen in the stairwell of a Bronx tenement and the first words out of Laughton's mouth were You are going to be a star And so began a fabled lifelong friendship that nurtured Al through years of not knowing where his next meal would come from until finally at age twenty six he landed his first salaried acting job Grobel and Pacino leave few stones unturned touching on the times when Pacino played piano in jazz clubs until four a.m. before showing up on the set of Scarecrow a few hours later for a full day's work when he ate Valium like candy at the Academy Awards and when he realized he had been in a long pattern of work and drink As the pivotal character in The Godfather trilogy and the cult classic Scarface Pacino has enshrined himself in film history He's worked with most of Hollywood's brightest luminaries such as Francis Ford Coppola, Sidney Lumet, Michael Mann, Norman Jewison, Brian De Palma, Marlon Brando, Robert De Niro, Gene Hackman, Sean Penn, Johnny Depp, Michelle Pfeiffer, Hilary Swank, and Robin Williams among many others. He was nominated for eight Academy Awards before winning the Oscar for Best Actor for his role in Scent of a Woman. Pacino still seems to prefer his work onstage to film, and if he's moved by a script or play, is quick to take parts in independent productions. Al Pacino is an intensely personal window into the life of an artist concerned more with the process of his art than with the fruits of his labor, a creative genius at the peak of his artistic powers who after all these years still longs to grow and learn more about his craft. And for now, it's as close to a memoir as we're likely to get.

I Want You in My Movie! Lawrence Grobel, 2014-09-11. Why am I doing this? Al Pacino wondered a year into his personal movie about his obsession with Salome, Oscar Wilde's lyrical play written in 1891. No one saw Looking for Richard, who's going to want to see something about Oscar Wilde. In I Want You in My Movie, Grobel found the answer to that question and more when he joined the crew and followed the creative process of filmmaking from inception to completion. His meticulous journal is as close to being there as a reader can ever hope to get. This intimate peek behind the curtain documenting the hopes, dreams, frustrations, and complexities of Pacino and all the people who come in and out of his life is a fitting sequel to Grobel's internationally acclaimed AL PACINO in Conversation with Lawrence Grobel, which was named the Best International Book of the Year by the Society of French Film Critics. I Want You in My Movie takes you deeper into the mind and process of Al Pacino. Including exclusive photos Grobel took on the set and behind the scenes, it's a movie buff's delight, warts and all.
