Almond G A And Powell G B Jr 1972:

SOCIETY AND POLITICS IN INDIA ROY, SHEFALI, 2014-10-11 Politics cannot grow in isolation at the same time society learns from the changing ethos of polity A relatively young subject Political Sociology tries to seek research excellence in its process of evolution This book on Political Sociology deals with different variables of society which influence various facets of political dynamics It also analyzes attitude and behavioural pattern of the public who act as political actors As a branch of political science the book draws attention to the very nature of this inter disciplinary study All the chapters are conceptualized to strengthen the bond between the polity and the society and vice versa This book is an attempt to widen the frontier of political science with an empirical approach Intended for the undergraduate and postgraduate students of Political Science and Sociology the book will enrich the students indulged in research works and those who are preparing for the Civil Services examinations as well

Social Power and Political Influence James T. Tedeschi, 2017-09-08 The nature of social power the ability of individuals to affect the behavior and belief of others is central to any understanding of the dynamics of change in our society It is therefore surprising that social scientists and especially social psychologists have devoted relatively little attention to the subject and have accumulated relatively little knowledge about it But this gap may be more apparent than real argues James T Tedeschi there has in fact been a great deal of research on many aspects of interpersonal influence What is missing is the kind of consensus about an operational definition of the concept of power that would bring this work usefully into focus The purpose of Social Power and Political Influence is to bring together the best work of scholars from many disciplines in order to organize develop evaluate and interpret scientific theories of social political and economic power The contributors are drawn from anthropology political science sociology and social psychology They illustrate a variety of approaches ranging from ethnographic case studies to mathematically formalized models Presenting theory and methods these chapters treat in provocative and creative ways such important problems as the factors that affect the use of power and the nature of response to its use the linkages that affect the flow of power between individuals and social systems the consequences of attributions of power by actors and observers and the implications of trust as an alternative to explicit influence This in depth scholarly sampling of research and theory will be of great interest to everyone concerned with the scientific study of social and political power and the influence processes The interdisciplinary nature of the topic itself and of the work represented here make Social Power and Political Influence an important contribution for students and scholars in many fields from social psychology political science and sociology to communications management science and economics

Indian Institute of Advanced Study, 1976 Muslims in India Qamar Hasan, 1987 The work is unique in the sense that it has not only delved into historical antecedents of the contemporary attitudes of the new generation of Indian Muslims but has also brought out their adjustment mechanisms and reactions to the demands which are made upon them from a section of the majority For the understanding of different aspects of behaviour of the minority vis a vis the majority the author has liberally drawn upon the relevant literature of three branches of social sciences viz Psychology Sociology and Political Science The studies of minority majority relations elsewhere are referred to for making the reader aware that to a very large extent minorities wherever they are found behave in the similar way Reviews The perspective offered by the author in the present study augurs well for the cause of nation building in the specific context of the persisting and ever elusive communal problem in India Prof Iqbal Narain The publication is so fascinating that I read more than half by the time I reached Lucknow Prof H S Asthana The first full length study of the mass psychology of the Muslim mind after Mujib s The Indian Muslims Qamar Hasan has used the tools of academic research to study the Muslim factor in Indian Politics read it because it is a same voice in the madness all around Tapan Basu Sunday The book clearly brings out reactions indicative of fear of domination and urge to dominate the book has made a definite contribution in the understanding of inter and intra group relationships Pramod Kumar The author must be complimented for his bold and frank revelations about the attitudes of Muslims and Hindus towards each other their self appraisals and their assessment Dr K Ravichandra Review Projector Vol VIII Nos 10 12 The causes and cures of the serious problems bedevilling relations between the Muslim minority in India and the Hindu majority badly need studying within a socio psychological framework Qamar Hasan is on the right track for a social scientist to throw light on the problems of his people but he needs to settle on just one frame of reference and typology and then test some bolder hypotheses

Ghana in Search of Development Dan-Bright Dzorgbo, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 When Ghana became independent in 1957 becoming the first country in Sub Saharan Africa to banish colonialism there was a general optimism that irreversible socio economic development was about to unfold But by the end of the 1970s Ghana paradoxically became the first country in Twentieth Century Africa to have experienced socio economic decline What failed Ghana This book seeks to answer this question By combining sociological economic political and institutional perspectives this book focuses on the interplay between state politics and socio economic development It provides a model which suggests that Ghana s postcolonial development has suffered mainly as a result of the failure or inability of governing elites to develop consensual politics and a clearly specified long term development objective that could be widely understood accepted and have relevance for policy making This book presents a much needed self assessment of the post colonial development experience which contends that governance economic management and institution building are basic challenges without which the search for development is likely to falter Impact of Electoral Process Louis Sandy Maisel, Joseph Cooper, 1977-02
