, 2007 The Compassion Book Pema Chödrön, 2017-03-21 The revered Buddhist teacher and author of When Things Fall Apart presents the lojong teachings pithy slogans for daily contemplation and the ways in which they can enrich our lives Welcome compassion and fearlessness as your guide and you'll live wisely and effectively in good times and bad But that's easier said than done In The Compassion Book Pema Chödrön introduces a powerful transformative method to nurture these qualities using a practice called lojong which has been a primary focus of her teachings and personal practice for many years For centuries Tibetan Buddhists have relied on these teachings to awaken the deep goodness that lies within us The lojong teachings include fifty nine pithy slogans for daily contemplation such as Always maintain only a joyful mind Don't be swayed by external circumstances Don't try to be the fastest and Be grateful to everyone This book presents each of these slogans and includes Pema's clear succinct guidance on how to understand them and how they can enrich our lives It also features a forty five minute downloadable audio program entitled Opening the Heart in which Pema offers in depth instruction on tonglen meditation a powerful practice that anyone can undertake to awaken compassion for oneself and others Pema Chödrön's Compassion Cards Pema Chodron, 2016-11-14 Originally appearing in The Compassion Box the lojong cards featured in this boxed set have been used and cherished by many Buddhist practitioners and spiritual seekers of all sorts for years Now these popular cards are available in a stand alone format priced to appeal to gift givers and impulse buyers Lojong is a classic set of Buddhist teachings or slogans from the Tibetan tradition for cultivating positive qualities in one's life such as compassion fearlessness altruism and happiness And interest in this practice has been growing originally popularized in the West with such books as Training the Mind and Cultivating Loving Kindness and Start Where You Are In this card set

Pema's commentaries on the reverse of each card offer her uniquely accessible insights on how to make the teachings really workable in one's life. It will make for a perfect gift to anyone seeking spiritual inspiration both Buddhists and non Buddhists alike.

Start Where You Are Pema Chödrön, 2004-03-09 This is a beautiful gift book edition with a ribbon marker of a modern day classic. Start Where You Are is an indispensable handbook for cultivating fearlessness and awakening a compassionate heart. With insight and humor, Pema Chödrön, author of The Wisdom of No Escape and When Things Fall Apart, presents down-to-earth guidance on how to make friends with ourselves and develop genuine compassion toward others. The author shows how we can start where we are by embracing rather than denying the painful aspects of our lives. Pema Chödrön frames her teachings on compassion around fifty-nine traditional Tibetan Buddhist maxims or slogans such as "Always apply a joyful state of mind," "Don't seek others' pain as the limbs of your own happiness," "Always meditate on whatever provokes resentment." Working with these slogans and through the practice of meditation, Start Where You Are shows how we can all develop the courage to work with our own inner pain and discover joy, well-being, and confidence.

Comfortable with Uncertainty Pema Chodron, 2003-12-30 108 practical teachings for cultivating mindfulness and compassion in the face of fear and uncertainty from the author of When Things Fall Apart. Comfortable with Uncertainty offers short stand-alone readings designed to help us cultivate compassion and awareness amid the challenges of daily living. More than a collection of thoughts for the day, it offers a progressive program of spiritual study leading the reader through essential concepts, themes, and practices on the Buddhist path. Readers do not need to have prior knowledge of Buddhist thought or practice, making Comfortable with Uncertainty a perfect introduction to Pema Chödrön's teaching. It features the most essential and stirring passages from Chödrön's previous books exploring topics such as lovingkindness meditation, mindfulness, nowness, letting go, and working with fear and other painful emotions. Through the course of this book, readers will learn practical methods for heightening awareness and overcoming habitual patterns that block compassion.

The Pocket Pema Chodron Pema Chödrön, 2008-12-09 A portable collection of short inspirational readings by one of the world's wisest women, the American Buddhist teacher and author of When Things Fall Apart. On the Oprah Magazine, Pema Chödrön, beloved Buddhist nun and best-selling author, offers this treasury of 108 short selections from her more than four decades of study and writings. Here she presents teachings on breaking free of destructive patterns, developing patience, kindness, and joy amid our everyday struggles, becoming fearless, and unlocking our natural warmth, intelligence, and goodness. Designed for on-the-go inspiration, this is a perfect guide to Buddhist principles and the foundations of meditation and mindfulness. The Shambhala Pocket Library is a collection of short, portable teachings from notable figures across religious traditions and classic texts. The covers in this series are rendered by Colorado artist Robert Spellman. The books in this collection distill the wisdom and heart of the work Shambhala Publications has published over 50 years into a compact format that is collectible, reader-friendly, and applicable to everyday life.

Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 We have everything we need We don't need to improve ourselves All the trips we lay on ourselves the heavy duty fearing that we're bad and hoping that we're good the identities that we so dearly cling to the rage the jealousy and the addictions of all kinds none of these things touch our basic wealth 2 The practice of meditation called shamatha vipashyana helps us to know ourselves It helps us to know our rough parts and our smooth parts our passion aggression ignorance and wisdom 3 In shamatha vipashyana meditation we sit upright with legs crossed and eyes open hands resting on our thighs We simply become aware of our breath as it goes out We are not grasping or fixating on it but instead we are opening and letting it mix with the space around us 4 The lojong practice is based on the notion that we can make friends with what we reject and that we can share our joy and insights with others It encourages us to embrace what we experience instead of fearing that it will end The Places That Scare You: A Guide to Fearlessness Pema Chödrön, 2013-02-21 One of the most inspiring spiritual teachers of our time offers simple practical advice for living with less fear less anxiety and a more open heart Awakening Loving-Kindness Pema Chödrön, 1996-11-05 Inspiration and encouragement for cultivating kindness by embracing the joy suffering confusion and brilliance of our everyday lives from the author of When Things Fall Apart Do you want to be a more compassionate person confident and unafraid to love yourself and the world around you unconditionally but aren't sure how We often look far and wide for guidance to become better people as though the answers were somewhere out there But Pema Chödrön suggests that the best and most direct teacher for awakening loving kindness is in fact your very own life Based on talks given during a one month meditation retreat at Gampo Abbey where Pema lives and teaches her teachings here focus on learning how to see the events of our lives as the perfect material for learning to love ourselves and our world playfully and wholeheartedly and to live in our skin fearlessly without aggression harshness or shame This is instruction for embarking on the greatest adventure of all to come alive to your inherent human kindness Perhaps what makes Pema's message resonate so strongly with people no matter what their religion or spiritual path is its universality O The Oprah Magazine The Places That Scare You Pema Chödrön, 2002-08-13 A lively and accessible take on ancient techniques for transforming terror and pain into joy and compassion from beloved Buddhist teacher Pema Chödrön O The Oprah Magazine Lifelong guidance for changing the way we relate to the scary and difficult moments of our lives showing us how we can use our difficulties and fears as a way to soften our hearts and open us to greater kindness We always have a choice in how we react to the circumstances of our lives We can let them harden us and make us increasingly resentful and afraid or we can let them soften us and allow our inherent human kindness to shine through In The Places That Scare You Pema Chödrön provides essential tools for dealing with the many difficulties that life throws our way teaching us how to awaken our basic human goodness and connect deeply with others to accept ourselves and everything around us complete with faults and imperfections Drawing from the core teachings of Buddhism she shows the strength that comes from staying in touch with what's happening in our lives right now and helps us unmask the ways in which our egos cause us to resist life as it is. If we go to the places that scare us, Pema suggests we just might find the boundless life we've always dreamed of.

Taking the Leap Pema Chodron, 2019-04-16 Learn to free yourself from destructive habits and live a life of courage and compassion with these heart-to-heart teachings from one of the world's wisest women. On the Oprah Magazine: Ever feel trapped in the same old habits and painful emotions, time and time again? These are patterns we all face and sometimes they feel impossible to shake. So how can we get unstuck? Drawing on time-honored Buddhist teachings on shenpa—all the attachments and compulsions that cause us suffering—Pema Chodron shows how certain habits of mind tend to hook us and get us stuck in states of anger, blame, self-hatred, addiction, and so much more, and most of all, how we can liberate ourselves from them. This path entails uncovering three basic human qualities, explains Pema: They are natural intelligence, natural warmth, and natural openness. Everyone everywhere, all over the globe, has these qualities and can call on them to help themselves and others. Pema shares insights and exercises from her lifetime of practice that we can immediately put to use in our lives to awaken these essential qualities and help us to take a bold leap toward a new way of living, one that will bring about positive transformation for ourselves and for our troubled world.

Living Beautifully Pema Chodron, 2019 Is it possible to live well when the very ground we stand on is shaky? Yes, says everyone's favorite Buddhist nun; it's even possible to live beautifully, compassionately, and happily on shaky ground, and the secret is the ground is always shaky. Pema shows how, using a traditional Buddhist practice called the Three Vows or Three Commitments, offering us a way to relax into profound sanity in the midst of whatever non-sanity is happening around us. Just making these simple aspirations can change the way we look at the world and can provide us with a lifetime of material for spiritual practice. The Three Commitments are three methods for embracing the chaotic, uncertain, dynamic, challenging nature of our situation as a path to awakening. The first of the commitments, traditionally called the Pratimoksha Vow, is the foundation for personal liberation. This is a commitment to doing our best to not cause harm with our actions or words or thoughts; a commitment to being good to each other. It provides a structure within which we learn to work with our thoughts and emotions and to refrain from speaking or acting out of confusion. The next step toward being comfortable with groundlessness is a commitment to helping others, traditionally called the Bodhisattva Vow. It is a commitment to dedicate our lives to keeping our hearts and minds open and nurturing our compassion with the longing to ease the suffering of the world. The last of the three commitments, traditionally known as the Samaya Vow, is a resolve to embrace the world just as it is, without bias; a resolve to see everything we encounter, good and bad, pleasant and painful, as a manifestation of awakened energy. It is a commitment to see everything and anything as a means by which we can awaken further.
