Creating Digital Literacy Spaces for Multilingual Writers Joel Bloch, 2021-01-27 This book argues for the value of digital literacy in the multilingual writing classroom Against the background of huge changes in literacy practices prompted by online communication and a growing acceptance of a broader definition of academic literacy that encompasses multimodality the book examines the relationship between digital and print literacies and addresses the design of literacy spaces for multilingual classrooms The author critically evaluates the latest developments in the use of technology in multilingual writing spaces and focuses on the role of teachers in their design it also addresses areas that are not often discussed in relation to multilingual students from blogging to publishing and intellectual property The book will help teachers meet the challenges created by rapidly shifting technology as well as making an innovative contribution to research on multilingual writing classrooms

Routledge Handbook of Nuclear Proliferation and Policy Joseph Pilat, Nathan Busch, 2015-05-15 This new Handbook is a comprehensive examination of the rich and complex issues of nuclear proliferation in the early 21st century The future of the decades long effort to prevent the further spread of weapons of mass destruction is at a crossroads today. If international nonproliferation efforts are to be successful, an integrated multi-tiered response will almost certainly be necessary. A serious, thorough, and clear-eyed examination of the range of threats, challenges, and opportunities facing the international community is a necessary first step. This Handbook, which presents the most up-to-date analysis and policy recommendations on these critical issues by recognized leading scholars in the field, intends to provide such an examination. The volume is divided into three major parts. Part I presents detailed threat assessments of proliferation risks across the globe, including specific regions and countries. Part II explains the various tools developed by the international community to address these proliferation threats. Part III addresses the proliferation risks and political challenges arising from nuclear energy production, including potential proliferation by aspiring states and nonstate groups. This Handbook will be of great interest to students and practitioners of nuclear proliferation, arms control, global governance, diplomacy, and global security, and IR generally.

Biography-Driven Culturally Responsive Teaching, Second Edition Socorro G. Herrera, 2016-01-27. Culturally responsive pedagogy literacy and English learner education expert Socorro Herrera has updated this bestseller to clarify focus and redefine concepts for the continued professional development of educators serving culturally and linguistically diverse (CLD) populations. Teaching strategies and tools have been updated to reflect important new brain research and to keep pace with our nation's ever-changing demographics and constant shift in expectations for K-12 students. Herrera has also revised the structure and format of the book to help educators find information quickly while working in highly complex and demanding environments. New for the Second Edition: Teaching strategies and tools based on the most current knowledge in the field; Authentic classroom artifacts that have been collected from teachers across the country; Glossary of key terms providing an auxiliary resource for current readers and for future applications of content in professional practice; Reorganized features with new icons providing a more user-friendly text for practitioner and classroom use; Updated excerpts from grade-level classroom teachers clarifying practice with CLD students and families; Additional planning and instructional aids available for free at www.tpress.com. Grounded in the latest theory and with more user-friendly features, the Second Edition of Biography-Driven Culturally Responsive Teaching will help educators to reflect on their assumptions and perspectives, integrate best practices, and accelerate CLD students' academic learning. Socorro Herrera does a masterful job of mediating multicultural education theory and practice specifically for culturally and linguistically diverse students in Biography-Driven Culturally Responsive Teaching. From the Foreword by Geneva Gay, University of Washington, Seattle.
