Ely, Edith King, Martin James Stormzand, 1926 The Columbia Guide to Religion in American History Paul Harvey, Edward Blum, 2012-02-14 Introduction major themes in American religious history Paul Harvey and Edward J Blum Colonial encounters Linford D Fisher Native American religions Suzanne Crawford O'Brien Civil religion and national identity Andrew M Manis Theology Mark Noll Evangelicals in American history Douglas A Sweeney Religion and politics Jason C Bivins Religion and the law in American history Frank S Ravitch Religion war and peace Ira R Chernus Religion gender and sexuality Anthony Michael Petro Religion race and African American life Edward J Blum Religion ethnicity and the immigrant experience Roberto R Trevi o Asian American religions Timothy Tseng Alternative religious movements in American history Stephen J Stein Religion and the environment Lynn Ross Bryant Religion and popular culture Philip Goff Religious conservatism and fundamentalism Margaret Bendroth Catholicism in America Leslie Woodcock Tentler American Judaism Alan T Levenson The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Mormons D Michael Quinn Islam in America Jane Smith Reader's Guide to American History Peter J. Parish, 2013-06-17 There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students teachers scholars and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want The Reader's Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography Each of the 600 entries on topics in political social and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors all scholars of American history The Chautauquan, 1896 American History Goes to the Movies W. Bryan Rommel Ruiz, 2011-01-26 Whether they prefer blockbusters historical dramas or documentaries people learn much of what they know about history from the movies In American History Goes to the Movies W Bryan Rommel Ruiz shows how popular representations of historic events shape the way audiences understand the history of the United States including

American representations of race and gender and stories of immigration especially the familiar narrative of the American Dream Using films from many different genres American History Goes to the Movies draws together movies that depict the Civil War the Wild West the assassination of JFK and the events of 9 11 from The Birth of a Nation and Gone with the Wind to The Exorcist and United 93 to show how viewers use movies to make sense of the past addressing not only how we render history for popular enjoyment but also how Hollywood's renderings of America influence the way Americans see themselves and how they make sense of the world

A Guide to the Teacher's Mastery of Texts Edith Cora Buck, 1906 The Complete Idiot's Guide to American History Alan Axelrod, 2009 Discusses American history from prehistory through 2006 including brief biographical sketches of historical figures and events from popular culture

Conducting Educational Research R. Murray Thomas, 1998-09-30 Emphasizing the comparative aspects of research this introduction to educational research traces the process through five stages choosing what to study including specifying the research problem collecting information organizing and summarizing information interpreting results and reporting the outcomes Each of the stages offers diverse options available to researchers for solving the problems of that stage and a research project checklist at the end of each chapter guides readers in applying the chapter's contents to their own research studies In much educational discourse comparative education has referred solely to the study of educational similarities and differences between regions of the world or between two or more nations This book uses the broader definition of the term to encompass a large body of research including studies focusing on comparisons between local educational systems schools classrooms language groups religious denominations genders social classes and individual students Students who are planning research projects as well as staff members of such organizations as ministries of education school systems bureaus of educational research and educational aid agencies will find this volume indispensable
