The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies Maia Carter Hallward, Ji Eun Kim, Cécile Mouly, Timothy Seidel, Zubairu Wai, 2025-06-07 The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies offers a comprehensive exploration of the complexities of violence conflict and peace from a global interdisciplinary perspective The handbook addresses the traditional Western centric approach while emphasizing the need to integrate Global South perspectives to create a more inclusive and transformative understanding of peace and conflict While important voices in peace and conflict studies have long stressed the need to not only address direct violence but also structural and cultural one certain strands of the field have upheld conservative knowledge production and reinforced unequal power structures This volume seeks to challenge these biases by foregrounding critical and decolonial approaches that emphasize gender race culture global history and political economy Its diverse chapters invite us to question mainstream assumptions and promote a broader more inclusive analysis of peace and conflict The handbook explores the evolution of the field highlighting the impact of historical events and the role of oppositional knowledge in political change It offers a critical overview of theoretical approaches emphasizing reflexivity inclusivity and the importance of local actors in peace and conflict dynamics Additionally it examines how cultural and disciplinary assumptions shape peacebuilding and conflict transformation and it critiques traditional global narratives on issues like governance climate change and human rights Finally the handbook presents real world case studies that integrate themes of decoloniality race gender and power inequalities across diverse global contexts By centering the Global South and integrating interdisciplinary perspectives this handbook provides valuable insights for scholars and practitioners committed to fostering a more equitable and just world Section 1 History Knowledge and Power in Peace and Conflict Studies Section 2 Theory and Analysis in Peace and Conflict Studies Section 3 Practices and Approaches in Peace and Conflict Studies Section 4 Global Issues Institutions and Change in Peace and Conflict Studies Section 5 Case Studies in Peace and Conflict Studies

Africa Peace Review ,2011 The State of Peacebuilding in Africa Terence McNamee, Monde

Muyangwa, 2020-11-02 This open access book on the state of peacebuilding in Africa brings together the work of distinguished scholars practitioners and decision makers to reflect on key experiences and lessons learned in peacebuilding in Africa over the past half century The core themes addressed by the contributors include conflict prevention mediation and management post conflict reconstruction justice and Disarmament Demobilization and Reintegration the role of women religion humanitarianism grassroots organizations and early warning systems and the impact of global regional and continental bodies The book s thematic chapters are complemented by six country region case studies The Democratic Republic of Congo Rwanda Sierra Leone Sudan South Sudan Mozambique and the Sahel Mali Each chapter concludes with a set of key lessons learned that could be used to inform the building of a more sustainable peace in Africa The State of Peacebuilding in Africa was born out of the activities of the Southern Voices Network for Peacebuilding SVN a Carnegie funded continent wide network of African organizations that works with the Wilson Center to bring African knowledge and perspectives to U S African and international policy on peacebuilding in Africa The research for this book was made possible by a grant from Carnegie Corporation of New York Researching Peacebuilding in Africa Ismail Rashid, Amy Niang, 2020-11-29 This book examines the multifaceted nature of conflict and the importance of the socio economic and political contexts of conflict and violence and shows how to support ongoing initiatives and programs to build sustainable peace on the African continent Drawing on a range of conceptual framings in the study of peace and conflict from gender perspectives to institutionalist to decolonial perspectives the contributors show how peacebuilding research covers a whole range of questions that go beyond concerns for post conflict reconstruction strategies Chapters focus on the methodological theoretical and practical aspects of peacebuilding and provide a toolbox of perspectives for conceptualizing and doing peacebuilding research in Africa Anchored in African centered perspectives the book encourages and promotes high quality interdisciplinary research that is conflict sensitive historically informed theoretically grounded and analytically sound This book will be of benefit to scholars policy makers and research institutions engaged in peacebuilding in Africa Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa Ernest E. Uwazie, 2019-01-15 This publication is the product of the 25th Annual Africa and Diaspora Conference in 2016 organized by the Center for African Peace and Conflict Resolution at California State University Sacramento on the theme of Peace and Conflict Resolution in Africa 25 Years Later Lessons Best Practices and Opportunities It brings together reflections on both historical and contemporary or recurring conflicts in Africa especially on issues of ethno religious conflicts corruption land and leadership The chapters include case studies and some theoretical perspectives on the persistent search for the right size and scope of visioning and programming on peace and conflict resolution in Africa Understandably this collection of ideas thoughts and proposals will resonate with the field of Peace and Conflict Studies Arguably Africa is rising in the 21st century with declining violent conflicts and an increase in stable democracies and economies However there are still the significant challenges of extremism climate change poor governance ineffective leadership widening wealth gaps and weak institutions of moderation The essays collected here also document areas of progress in legitimizing democracy and conceptualizing social justice and suggest the need for building the next generation of peace leaders in Africa The Politics of Peacebuilding in Africa Thomas Kwasi Tieku, Amanda Coffie, Mary Boatemaa Setrana, Akin Taiwo, 2021-11-29 This interdisciplinary book brings together innovative chapters that address the entire spectrum of the African peacebuilding landscape and showcases findings from original studies on peacebuilding With a range of perspectives the chapters cover the full gamut of peacebuilding i e the continuum between conflict prevention and post war reconstruction and address both micro and macro peacebuilding issues in the five regions of Africa Moving beyond the tendency to focus on a single case study or few case studies in peacebuilding scholarship the chapters examine critical peacebuilding issues at the local state regional extra regional and continental levels in Africa This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics peace and security studies regional organizations development studies state building and more broadly to international relations public policy diplomacy international organizations and the wider social sciences

Gender, Peace and Security in Africa Cheryl Hendricks, Romi Sigsworth, 2018-02-06 There is often a moment in time that acts as a rallying point around a particular issue 2015 was one of those moments for women peace and security as numerous landmark anniversaries were celebrated in the field Africa has in many ways been the global laboratory for the gender peace and security agenda not only because of the number of conflicts occurring on the continent but also because African regional organisations governments and civil society organisations have been at the forefront of striving for gender equality and implementing United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 This book explores gender peace and security in Africa from multiple angles including the conceptual and implementation challenges and shifts around women peace and security in Africa over the last 15 years women's role as combatants in national liberation forces in South Africa the dynamics of gender in the military through the lens of Kenyan women combatants food security through a feminist lens and a series of case studies on the nexus between gender and security in Zimbabwe Nigeria Madagascar the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya and Somalia This book was previously published as a special issue of the African Security Review

Peacekeeping and the African Union Jude Cocodia, 2017-09-27 This book offers a detailed examination of the effectiveness of the peacekeeping operations of the African Union Despite its growing reputation in peacekeeping and its status as the oldest continental peacekeeper the performance of the African Union AU has hitherto not been assessed This book fills that gap and analyses six case studies Burundi Comoros Somalia Mali Darfur and the Central African Republic From a methodological perspective it takes a problem solving approach and utilises process tracing in its analysis with its standard for success resting on achieving negative peace the cessation of violence and provision of security Theoretically this study offers a comprehensive list of factors drawn from peace literature and field experience which influence the outcome of peacekeeping Beyond the major issues such as funding international collaboration and mandate this work also examines the impact of largely ignored factors such as force integrity and territory size The book modifies the claim of peace literature on what matters for success and advocates the indispensability of domestic elite cooperation local initiative and international political will It recognises the necessity of factors such as lead state and force integrity for certain peace operations In bringing these factors together this study expands the peacekeeping debate on what matters for stability in conflict areas This book will be of much interest to students of peacekeeping African politics war and conflict studies and International Relations in general

The Crises of Postcoloniality in Africa Omeje, Kenneth, 2017-05-05 The Crises of Postcoloniality in Africa is an assemblage of transdisciplinary essays that offer a spirited reflection on the debate and phenomenon of postcoloniality in Africa including the changing patterns and ramifications of problems challenges and opportunities associated with it A key conceptual rhythm that runs through the various chapters of the book is that far from being demised postcoloniality is still firmly embedded in Africa manifesting itself in both blatant and insidious forms Among the important themes covered in the book include the concepts of postcolonialism postcoloniality and neocolonialism Africa s precolonial formations and the impact of colonialism the enduring patterns of colonial legacies in Africa the persistent contradictions between African indigenous institutions and western versions of modernity the unravelling of the postcolonial state and issues of armed conflict conflict intervention and peacebuilding postcolonial imperialism in Africa and the US led global war on terror the historical and postcolonial contexts of gender relations in Africa as well as pan Africanism and regionalist approaches to redressing the crises of postcoloniality

The Palgrave Handbook of Peace, Conflict and Security Studies in Africa Elias O. Opongo,David Kaulem,Susan M. Mbula,Sarah Njeri,2025-10-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Peace Conflict and Security in Africa is a groundbreaking reference resource that offers an interdisciplinary and decolonial exploration of peace conflict and security across the African continent It features theoretical articulations that explore new approaches to peacebuilding in Africa rethinking peacebuilding strategies and decolonized approaches to governance and peace sustainability The volume is organized into three thematic sections Peace Conflict and Security each addressing the theoretical foundations methodological innovations and emerging challenges that shape Africa s unique peace and security landscape The chapters provide both theoretical and methodological insights while highlighting locally grounded strategies and alternatives to dominant Western frameworks

The Elgar Companion to War, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Geoff Harris,2024-02-12 This dynamic Companion brings together esteemed academics from across the globe to provide ten distinct approaches to peacebuilding in Africa With a timely and forward thinking approach to war and conflict the book focuses on the utilisation of traditional African dialogue in contemporary peacebuilding developing infrastructures and education for peace with a transformative agenda

The Palgrave Handbook of Religion, Peacebuilding, and Development in Africa Susan M. Kilonzo,Ezra Chitando,Joram Tarusarira,2023-10-17 This Handbook explores the ways in which religion among the African people has been applied in situations of conflict and violence to contribute to sustainable peace and development It analyzes how peacebuilding inspired and enabled by religion serves as the foundation for sustainable development in Africa while also acknowledging that religion can also be a tool of destruction and can be used to fuel violence and underdevelopment Contributors to this volume offer theoretical discussions from existing literature as well as experiences of practitioners to deepen the readers understanding on the role of religion and religious institutions in peacebuilding and development in Africa The Handbook provides reflections on possible future developments as well thereby aligning with the goals of SDG 16

State Fragility and State Building in Africa Dele Olowu,Paulos Chanie,2015-10-19 This book describes the contrast between the strong economic growth and democratization that have occurred in Africa and its stalling political progress It presents and discusses fragility as the phenomenon that has caused the state to remain weak and faltering and has led to at least one third of the continent's citizens living in fragile states Following the examination of the drivers of fragility and the impact of fragility on citizens and neighbouring states the book discusses capacity building approaches This part shows how effective states can be built on the African continent a process that would result in a change from state fragility to state resilience It is based on lessons learnt from close studies of the nations where the state has been most developed in the region in Eastern and Southern Africa The book provides and responds to the most recent and up to date information on African development and uses insights of people who have lived and worked in the continent for most of their lives Professional Social Work in East Africa Helmut Spitzer, M.

Twikirize, 2014-10-28 Prevalent poverty and related problems in the East African region call for substantial action from various stakeholders including social workers This book based on comprehensive empirical research portrays an emerging yet powerful profession that has a significant role to play in the endeavour towards social development social justice human rights and gender equality The book is the first of its kind to provide first hand theoretical and empirical evidence about social work in East Africa Internal Security Management in Nigeria Oshita O. Oshita, Ikenna Mike Alumona, Freedom

Chukwudi Onuoha, 2019-07-23 This book explores the disturbing dimensions of the problem of insecurity in Nigeria such as herdsmen violence the Boko Haram insurgency cybercrime militancy in the Niger Delta communal conflict and violence as well as police corruption It offers a comprehensive discussion of the theoretical foundations of internal security the threats to internal security the role of formal and informal agencies in internal security management and the challenges of internal security management The United Nations as a Knowledge System Nanette Svenson, 2015-10-16 This book seeks to explore how the UN has generated warehoused disseminated structured packaged expanded transferred and leveraged its vast resources of accumulated information and experience throughout the decades and particularly since the start of the 21st century with the introduction of more connective information and communications technology It examines the overarching objectives that have guided such activity and divides UN knowledge management into three distinct but often overlapping and intertwining categories knowledge for social and organizational learning knowledge for norm setting and knowledge for creation of products and services Svenson brings together these multiple aspects of UN knowledge management to present a holistic view of how the organization utilizes its global intelligence to educate advocate and serve member countries development Instead of looking at the UN as an international bureaucracy or as a peacekeeping policymaking humanitarian or development entity this work studies the UN as a generator and purveyor of information learning and experience in all of these areas This book will be key reading for all students and scholars of international organizations Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Omeje, 2018-10-03 Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa explores the challenges and opportunities faced by countries and societies transitioning from armed conflicts to peace in contemporary Africa It evaluates the effectiveness outcomes and failures of existing peacebuilding initiatives implemented by stakeholders and proposes new strategies and approaches to facilitate the transition The book investigates both micro and macro level conflicts in various parts of Africa as well as the efforts made to resolve them and build peace The book pays particular attention to grassroots based micro level conflicts often disregarded in peacebuilding literature which tends to focus on macro level neo liberal state reconstruction and peacebuilding efforts The book adopts an evidence based policy relevant approach to peacebuilding in Africa The various chapter contributors offer a lucid analysis and critique of some of the prevailing paradigms and strategies of peacebuilding practiced in Africa Together the authors recommend innovative strategies to mobilise and coordinate governance institutions and partnerships at all levels international regional national and local to prevent conflict escalation in volatile states and advance the rebuilding of violence affected states and communities Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa provides a much needed perspective from African scholars and will be of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners with an interest in promoting legitimate policy interventions and sustainable peace in Africa Women and Peacebuilding in Africa Anna Chitando,2020-11-16 This volume re centres African women scholars in the discourse on African women and peacebuilding combining theoretical reflections with case studies in a range of African countries The chapters outline the history of African women s engagement in peacebuilding introducing new and neglected themes such as youth disability and religious peacebuilding and laying the foundations for new theoretical insights Providing case studies from across Africa the contributors highlights the achievements and challenges characterising women s contributions to peacebuilding on the continent This book will be of interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding African security and gender Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Adeshina Afolayan,Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso,Toyin Falola,2018-06-29 As the epicenter of Christianity has shifted towards Africa in recent decades Pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent This collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and African Pentecostalism Situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the Pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how Pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in Africa modulate the Pentecostal movement Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial African life opening up new directions for future research
