Your Primary School-based Experience Catriona Robinson, Branwen Bingle, Colin Howard, 2025-02-28 This book is an essential companion for all primary trainee teachers whatever their training route. It focuses on the school-based experience and provides both practical strategies and opportunities for reflection so trainees are challenged to critically evaluate their learning in order to improve attainment and ultimately succeed while in their school settings. The book reflects current educational policy and embraces key national priority areas including behaviour inclusion and the teaching of phonics and early mathematics. Other chapters look at professional partnerships, planning and assessment, employability and crucially how to move from good to outstanding teaching. Case studies enliven the text and present a range of perspectives for consideration while critical questions engage the reader and promote a deeper understanding of the text. This second edition of Primary School Placements has been fully revised throughout and in particular provides an increased focus on evidence-based practice and is referenced to the latest national curriculum.

Special Education Transition Services for Students with Disabilities Jeffrey P. Bakken, Festus E. Obiakor, 2019-11-26 This book discusses the considerable challenges students with disabilities conquer in education, varying from relationships with teachers and academics, learning resources and everyday social situations.

Classroom Notes Plus, 1999

Professional Learning Communities by Design Lois Brown Easton, 2011-07-14 This practical guide to the successful implementation of Professional Learning Communities is focused on the intentional learning and actions of teachers who wish to help struggling students succeed and narrow achievement gaps. The author includes a range of professional learning designs, protocols and tools that can be applied to various PLC contexts. Each chapter includes an installment of a realistic and meaningful case narrative that describes what happens as faculty members work toward improving learning for all students. Provided by publisher.

Reframing Social Work with an Anti-Oppressive Lens Carol Tosone, Kirk "Jae" James, Linda Lausell Bryant, 2025-10-16 This book offers a state-of-the-art overview of agency-based social work practice consistent with the values and ethical principles of the profession. Applying an anti-oppressive liberatory social justice lens to working with Black Indigenous People of Color (BIPOC) and other at-risk populations, the book provides contemporary theoretical frameworks and practice approaches, rich clinical examples and practice wisdom from expert agency-based social work clinicians working in the dominant fields of practice: child welfare, education, health, mental health, youth justice, carceral systems, substance use, intimate partner violence, racial and other traumas, palliative care, world of work and older adults. This is the essential guide for beginning social workers and supervisors practicing in diverse organizational settings. The book provides both an overview of practice in the aforementioned areas as well as an in-depth look at intersubjective practice with the specific population. Each clinical chapter provides the history of social work in the practice setting, an overview of the current research in the area, the predominant evidence-based practice approaches being used, the roles of the social worker in the specific setting and grounded in anti-oppressive and ethical clinical practice an extensive case example and discussion inclusive of the clinician s reflections and countertransference reactions practice and supervisory wisdom offered by the authors as to how to negotiate the organizational system to best benefit their clients evolving nature and future direction of the practice area and reflection questions for students instructors and beginning clinicians Reframing Social Work with an Anti Oppressive Lens is primarily intended for social work students as well as beginning social workers and their supervisors who could also benefit from its contents Chapters can readily be assigned in placement settings such that the supervisor supervisee dyad can reflect on the core aspects of social work practice within their agency context
