Wrońska, 2025-07-10 Humans in the Cyber Loop Perspectives on Social Cybersecurity addresses the evolving role of humans in cyberspace through an analysis of how digital interactions and advancements both shape and are shaped by societal economic and political factors. The book systematically explores social cybersecurity, the impact of disinformation on democratic processes, the influence of social media on public opinion, and the implications of algorithmic decision making to demonstrate the importance of building societal resilience to cyber attacks and to better understand specific needs and challenges in this domain. Excerpt from a review by Prof. Danuta Ka mierzak, University of the National Education Commission, Kraków: The authors treat cyberspace as an ecosystem composed of networks of organizations, individuals, and technologies whose dynamics are defined by the multidimensional relationships of these components. The book contains analyses and examples that allow a greater understanding of the processes, phenomena, and mechanisms occurring in societies created at the intersection of the real and virtual worlds.

The Rhetoric of Cicero in its Medieval and Early Renaissance Commentary Tradition Virginia Cox, John Ward, 2018-11-12. This multi-authored volume by an authoritative team of international scholars examines the transmission of Ciceronian rhetoric in medieval and early Renaissance Europe, concentrating on the fortunes in particular of the two dominant classical rhetorical textbooks of the time: Cicero's early De inventione and the contemporary pseudo-Ciceronian Rhetorica ad Herennium. The volume is unprecedented in range and depth as a presentation of the place of classical rhetoric in medieval culture and will serve to revise views of a period seen until recently as largely indifferent to the values of eloquence. The main body of the volume is composed of a series of ground-breaking studies of the relationship between Ciceronian rhetoric and a wide range of intellectual traditions and cultural practices, including dialectic, law, conduct theory, memory, poetics, and practical composition, teaching, preaching, ars dictaminis, and political oratory. Also included are important contextualizing essays on the commentary tradition of the Ciceronian juvenilia, on the textual history and manuscript transmission of Cicero's rhetorical works, and on the Latin and vernacular traditions of Ciceronian rhetoric in Italy. The volume concludes with an annotated appendix of illustrative texts containing extracts from the commentary tradition on Ciceronian rhetoric, most of which have not been previously available in print.

The essays also describe the psychological impact of the Holocaust on survivors, witnesses, and perpetrators, and upon Jewish identity in general after the Second World War. The scholars explore the problems of the memorialization of the Holocaust in the Soviet Union and the description of the Holocaust in

Russian literature Several essays are devoted to the representation of the Holocaust in film and trace the evolution of its depiction from the early Holocaust movies of the late 1940s early 1950s to modern Holocaust fantasy films They also show the influence of Holocaust cinema on feature films about the Armenian Genocide Lastly several authors propose innovative methods of teaching the Holocaust to college students The younger generation of students may see the Holocaust as an event of the distant past so new teaching methods are needed to explain its significance This collection of essays based on new multi disciplinary research and innovative methods of teaching opens many unknown aspects and provides new perspectives on the Holocaust
