Airline Marketing and Management Stephen Shaw, 1985 Fundamentals of Airline Marketing Scott Ambrose, Blaise Waguespack, 2021-05-27

Applying fundamentals of marketing to commercial passenger air transportation, this textbook puts the emphasis on marketing principles and illustrative ways in which airlines can distinguish themselves within the highly competitive global marketplace. Fundamentals of Airline Marketing begins with a survey of current airline business strategies and the macro forces that have shaped the airline industry in the past and will continue to do so in the future. The growing importance of technology is discussed both from the perspective of better understanding customer needs and engaging more effectively with them. The central role of the customer is explored through the lens of modern segmentation and branding approaches. Coverage then shifts to the tactical decision areas consisting of the 4Ps: product, place, promotion and price in which marketers shape and execute their strategies. The book concludes with a focus on executing marketing initiatives internally through customer-facing employee groups and externally through the measurement and management of the customer experience. Fundamentals of Airline Marketing is an accessible textbook on the fundamentals of marketing for commercial passenger air transportation, chronicles the marketing innovations and controversies that have been central to the historic shift in airline fortunes demonstrates how airline decisions fit within the fundamentals of marketing and how the marketplace is continuing to evolve provides a bridge between key marketing principles and their specific application to the airline industry in each chapter This textbook is written primarily for undergraduate college students enrolled in aviation business administration programs and related courses It will also serve as an accessible primer on airline marketing for industry professionals not presently working in marketing and for frontline airline employees seeking to learn more about marketing of these airlines or by finding new innovative methods fresh ideas and a new positioning The main objectives for my thesis are Is the success of low cost airlines only a short term event or is it a successful business marketing concept Are the traditional airlines in danger Is the Low Cost concept the better concept What can traditional airlines learn from the marketing methods of low cost airlines Aviation Marketing Ryan Leick Keith J.
