Love, Longing, Intimacy and Contentment Abu Ḥamid Al-Ghazālī, Ghazzālī, 2016 The Book of Love Longing Intimacy and Contentment is the thirty sixth chapter of Abu Ḥamid al Ghazālī's Revival of the Religious Sciences This was the first treatise which established not merely the possibility but the necessity for the love of God Ghazālī argues that all the virtues and spiritual stages that precede love like repentance patience and thankfulness lead to love and all the spiritual stages that follow on from love are a result of it

Love in Sufi Literature Omneya Ayad, 2023-09-27 Focused on Ḥamad Ibn Ajba an eighteenth century Moroccan Sufi scholar renowned for his contribution to Sufi Qur'anic exegesis this book engages critically with his theory of divine love to elucidate his impact on the wider field of Qur'anic scholarship The principal source of analysis is Ibn Ajba's Oceanic Exegesis of the Qur'an which connected theoretical works on the concept of divine love to their practical application a breakthrough in Sufi literature Close analysis of this text is supplemented by a comparative approach focusing on several other eminent Sufi commentaries including those of Abū al-Qāsim al-Qushayr and Ruzbihān Baqlī Sharrāz This comparative approach situates Ibn Ajba's thought in theological and historical perspective engaging with his mystical approach which integrates his theory of divine love with other Sufi doctrines in an accessible manner This approach it is argued left an indelible impact on future generations of Qur'anic exegetes within North Africa and across the Islamic world The book will prove an important resource for academic researchers who wish to explore the vast intellectual heritage that Ibn Ajba left as well as to those interested in Sufi literature and Islamic theology in general

Remembrance, and the Metaphysics of Love Joseph E. B. Lumbard, 2016-10-20 Discusses the work of a central but poorly understood figure in the development of Persian Sufism Ḥamad al Ghazālī The teachings of Ḥamad al Ghazālī changed the course of Persian Sufism forever paving the way for luminaries such as Rūmī and Ḥafiz Yet he remains a poorly understood thinker with many treatises incorrectly attributed to him and conflicting accounts in the historiographical literature This work provides the first examination of Ḥamad al Ghazālī and his work in Western scholarly literature Joseph E B Lumbard seeks to ascertain the authenticity of works attributed to this author trace the development of the dominant trends in the biographical literature and reconstruct the life and times of Ḥamad al Ghazālī with particular attention to his relationship with his more famous brother Abū Ḥamid al Ghazālī Lumbard's findings revolutionize our understanding of Ḥamad al Ghazālī's writings allowing for focus on his central teachings regarding Divine Love and the remembrance of God and of falling in love and why how when and where they occur Islam as Devotion Ralf K. Wüstenberg, 2019-07-05 How is it that Islam is so feared and misunderstood among Christians Is there any possibility of an open dialogue between Muslims and Christians that will lead to a greater understanding of both Ralf K W stenberg explores these and other questions in an in depth investigation of Islam using as his guide the teachings of the revered Muslim scholar Al Ghazali and placing them in dialogue with those of the protestant theologian and Reformer John Calvin The journey of discovery offered in this book is of long lasting value to both Christians and Muslims as they seek to find common ground in understanding the most important and basic tenets of each other s faith Models of Desire in Graeco-Arabic Philosophy Bethany Somma, 2021-03-08 This study argues that late ancient Greek and medieval Islamic philosophers interpret human desire along two frameworks in reaction to Aristotle s philosophy The investigation of the model dichotomy unfolds historically from the philosophy of Plotinus through the Graeco Arabic translation movement in 8th 10th century Baghdad to 12th century al Andalus with the philosophy of Ibn B a and Ibn ufayl Diverging on desire s inherent or non inherent relation to the desiring subject the two models reveal that the desire s role can orient opposed accounts of human perfection logically structured demonstrative knowledge versus an ineffable witnessing of the truth Understanding desire along these models philosophers incorporated supra rational aspects into philosophical accounts of the human being Arvo Pärt Peter C. Bouteneff, Jeffers Engelhardt, Robert Saler, 2020-12-01 Scholarly writing on the music of Arvo P rt is situated primarily in the fields of musicology cultural and media studies and more recently in terms of theology spirituality Arvo P rt Sounding the Sacred focuses on the representational dimensions of P rt s music including the trope of silence writing and listening past the fact that its storied effects and affects are carried first and foremost as vibrations through air impressing themselves on the human body In response this ambitiously interdisciplinary volume asks What of sound and materiality as embodiments of the sacred as historically specific artifacts and as elements of creation deeply linked to the human sensorium in P rt studies In taking up these questions the book de Platonizes P rt studies by demystifying the notion of a single P rt sound It offers innovative critical analyses of the historical contexts of P rt s experimentation medievalism and diverse creative work it re sounds the acoustic theological and representational grounds of silence in P rt s music it listens with critical openness to the intersections of theology sacred texts and spirituality in P rt s music and it positions sensing performing bodies at the center of musical experience Building on the conventional score biography and media based approaches this volume reframes P rt studies around the materiality of sound its sacredness and its embodied resonances within secular spaces Divine Love in Islamic Mysticism Binyamin Abrahamov, 2013-10-28 The two theories of divine love that are examined in this book have their foundations in Greek Jewish Christian and Muslim ideas Al Ghaz l twelfth century was influenced mainly by Plato and Ibn Sina s teachings while al Dabb gh thirteenth century who accepted some Ghaz l an notions developed a theory of divine love that can be traced back to Neoplatonism Both scholars created complete theories of divine love that include definitions of love its causes and signs the ways to love God God's love for man and kinds of love The book will interest students of theology philosophy and mysticism in general and students of Islam in particular Emotions and Monotheism John Corrigan, 2024-05-31 The emotional turn in scholarship has changed the way in which historians of religion think about monotheistic traditions New histories of religion have adapted and incorporated the totalizing sensibilities of twentieth century annalists the granular view of social historians groundbreaking philosophical investigations and the spirit of interdisciplinary collaboration between historical analysis anthropology and psychology Religion as a principal bearer of culture has shaped emotional life profoundly just as human emotion has constituted religious life Taking a qualified constructivist approach to emotion enables understanding of the dynamism fluidity and ambiguity in emotional experience alongside continuities and facilitates analysis of how that feeling has animated religious life in monotheistic traditions It equally sharpens insight into how monotheistic religion itself has made emotion Affect emotion and mixed emotions are three categories of feelings evidenced in monotheistic religions Each is illustrated with respect to the similarities and differences among Judaism Christianity and Islam The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms

Human Struggle Mona Siddiqui, 2021-08-25 The first comparative work to explore how humankind seek out the meaning of life amid suffering and struggle Islamic Theology and the Problem of Evil Safaruk Chowdhury, 2021-04-06 A rigorous study of the problem of evil in Islamic theology Like their Jewish and Christian co religionists Muslims have grappled with how God who is perfectly good compassionate merciful powerful and wise permits intense and profuse evil and suffering in the world At its core Islamic Theology and the Problem of Evil explores four different problems of evil human disability animal suffering evolutionary natural selection and Hell Each study argues in favor of a particular kind of explanation or justification theodicy for the respective evil Safaruk Chowdhury unpacks the notion of evil and its conceptualization within the mainstream Sunni theological tradition and the various ways in which theologians and philosophers within that tradition have advanced different types of theodicies He not only builds on previous works on the topic but also looks at kinds of theodicies previously unexplored within Islamic theology such as an evolutionary theodicy Distinguished by its application of an analytic theology approach to the subject and drawing on insights from works of both medieval Muslim theologians and philosophers and contemporary philosophers of religion this novel and highly systematic study will appeal to students and scholars not only of theology but of philosophy as well

Sexuality and Islamic Spirituality in Early Malay Writings Maznah Mohamad, Syahirah Rasheed, 2025-07-24 It is argued here that before the extensive formalization of sharia laws from the late nineteenth century onwards Islam was prominently influenced by elements of enchantment and mysticism mirrored in its textual portrayal of passionate and sexual relations This book s analysis is based on Malay manuscripts and texts about the body sex and sexuality These include religious guidebooks on sexual techniques and etiquette of which some are translated from the original Arabic or Persian but almost all of which have been adapted for local Malay relevance Also analyzed are collections of Malay erotic poetry from the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries and the only known female authored early twentieth century text on sex and women s sexual pleasure Over the centuries changing sexual norms and attitudes in the Malay world has disengaged sex and sexuality from being a crucial component of faith and spirituality gradually receding into the discreet margins of contemporary discourse on gender relations

Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam Mary Thurlkill, 2016-07-26 Medieval scholars and cultural historians have recently turned their attention to the question of smells and what olfactory sensations reveal about society in general and holiness in particular

Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam contributes to that conversation explaining how early Christians and Muslims linked the sweet smell of sanctity with ideals of the body and sexuality created boundaries and sacred space and imagined their emerging communal identity Most importantly scent itself transgressive and difficult to control signaled transition and transformation between categories of meaning Christian and Islamic authors distinguished their own fragrant ethical and theological ideals against the stench of oppositional heresy and moral depravity Orthodox Christians ridiculed their stinking Arian neighbors and Muslims denounced the reeking corruption of Umayyad and Abbasid decadence Through the mouths of saints and prophets patriarchal authors labeled perfumed women as existential threats to vulnerable men and consigned them to enclosed private space for their protection as well as society's At the same time theologians praised both men and women who purified and transformed their bodies into aromatic offerings to God Both Christian and Muslim pilgrims venerated sainted men and women with perfumed offerings at tombstones indeed Christians and Muslims often worshipped together honoring common heroes such as Abraham Moses and Jonah Sacred Scents begins by surveying aroma's quotidian functions in Roman and pre Islamic cultural milieus within homes temples poetry kitchens and medicines Existing scholarship tends to frame scent as something available only to the wealthy or elite however perfumes spices and incense wafted through the lives of most early Christians and Muslims It ends by examining both traditions views of Paradise identified as the archetypal Garden and source of all perfumes and sweet smells Both Christian and Islamic texts explain Adam and Eve's profound grief at losing access to these heavenly aromas and celebrate God's mercy in allowing earthly remembrances Sacred scent thus prompts humanity's grief for what was lost and the yearning for paradisiacal transformation still to come
