Methods, Methodologies, and Perspectives in the Humanities and Social Sciences With Particular Reference to Islamic Studies: A Critical Rationalist Interpretation Ali Paya,2021-01-01 This book presents the first comprehensive introduction to methods and methodologies in the humanities and social sciences in general and Islamic Studies in particular from a critical rationalist point of view The book aims to be a self sufficient theoretical and practical guide to the topics that it introduces It contains a large selection of fully worked out review activities and review questions plus topics for further discussion which are devised to assist readers to better understand the issues which are discussed in the book Last but not least all efforts have been made to make sure that most if not all of the reading materials which are recommended in the book are not only of the highest quality but also freely available on the internet

The Will of Change Eva-Maria Maggi, 2015-10-13 In this book Eva Maria Maggi argues that the European Union EU had an impact on institutional reform processes in North Africa in cases where major domestic actors agreed She analyzes how political actors in Morocco used EU neighborhood policies to shape economic and environmental policy between 1995 and 2008 Maggi argues that it was not the design of the EU's neighborhood policies but rather the will of change of domestic actors in Morocco that determined the pace direction of reform and the extent to which the EU continues to play a role in them While Moroccan politics were indeed europeanized Maggi highlights the role of domestic actors who so effectively managed to put forth their own policy priorities and essentially moroccanized the ENP

Unconventional Methodology in Organization and Management Research Alan Bryman, David A. Buchanan, 2018-03-21 Most researchers in organization and management studies stick to two or three traditional research methods like surveys and interviews Sticking with the familiar is seen as a safe bet and innovation is discouraged by academic incentives and rewards But research participants are now suffering from survey fatigue and using the same old methods runs the risk of generating the same old findings This book describes twelve unconventional methodologies in organization and management research These include unconventional research settings and data sources unconventional research designs and data collection methods unconventional analytic approaches and designs and methods that exploit new technology developments The aim is to encourage dialogue and experimentation with regard to the development of innovative unconventional approaches to organization and management research Several commentators have criticized the way in which research methods have become more formulaic and have argued for greater diversity in research approaches The methodological perspective that we adopt shapes our interpretation of the information that we gather Different methods generate different kinds of information leading to different ways of understanding the phenomena that we are investigating Our methods influence our styles of theorizing ways of thinking and reasoning and forms of writing and reporting research This book will be of value to academic researchers in organization and management studies Doctoral candidates and Masters students on MBA and similar programmes

Routledge Companion to Audiences and the Performing Arts Matthew Reason, Lynne Conner, Katya Johanson, Ben Walmsley, 2022-04-05 The Routledge Companion to Audiences and the Performing Arts represents a truly multi dimensional exploration of the inter relationships between audiences and performance This study considers audiences contextually and historically through both qualitative and quantitative empirical research and places them within appropriate philosophical and socio cultural discourses Ultimately the collection marks the point where audiences have become central and essential not just to the act of performance itself but also to theatre dance opera music and performance studies as academic disciplines This Companion will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduates as well as to theatre dance opera and music practitioners and performing arts organisations and stakeholders involved in educational activities Understanding the Age of Transitional Justice Nanci Adler, 2018-06-22 Since the 1980s an array of legal and non legal practices labeled Transitional Justice has been developed to support post repressive post authoritarian and post conflict societies in dealing with their traumatic past In Understanding the Age of Transitional Justice the contributors analyze the processes products and efficacy of a number of transitional justice mechanisms and look at how genocide mass political violence and historical injustices are being institutionally addressed They invite readers to speculate on what else the transcripts produced by these institutions tell us about the past and the present calling attention to the influence of implicit history conveyed in the narratives that have gained an audience through international criminal tribunals trials and truth commissions Nanci Adler has gathered leading specialists to scrutinize the responses to and effects of violent pasts that provide new perspectives for understanding and applying transitional justice mechanisms in an effort to stop the recycling of old repressions into new ones Church Growth in African Diaspora Communities Paul Araoluwa Ayokunle, 2025-03-31

As the centre of Christianity shifts towards Africa African migrants have become a significant source of Christian witness in the West and African diaspora congregations in the UK are springing up and multiplying In this ethnographically informed study Dr Paul Araoluwa Ayokunle explores the factors impacting the growth of three such African diaspora churches in Liverpool England His research identifies the challenges posed by hierarchical leadership styles and an unfamiliar and potentially hostile cultural context as well as the essential nature of ecclesiology one s theological understanding of the church and its calling in answering these challenges Ultimately he proposes a Yoruba based ecclesiology alongside an adaptive leadership model as a way forward for the African church to continue growing in its mission to be a light to the nations including to the once Christian West This book offers a powerful exploration of the richness of grassroots ecclesiology and the role of migration and contextualization in the spread of Christ s kingdom to all peoples and places
