Theorising Literary Islands Ian Kinane, 2016-11-16

Theorising Literary Islands is a literary and cultural study of both how and why the trope of the island functions within contemporary popular Robinsonade narratives. It traces the development of Western isomania or our obsession with islands from its origins in Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe right up to contemporary Robinsonade texts focusing predominantly on American and European representations of fictionalized Pacific Island topographies in contemporary literature, film, television and other media. Theorising Literary Islands argues that the ubiquity of island landscapes within the popular imagination belies certain ideological and cultural anxieties and posits that the emergence of a Western popular culture tradition can largely be traced through the development of the Robinsonade genre and through early European and American fascination with the Pacific region.

Literature and International Relations Paul Sheeran, 2016-05-23. Making a strong case for the relevance of literary production to understanding international relations, this persuasive volume highlights the potential rewards of developing a methodology to bring literature to bear on a discipline which has tended to neglect fictional sources. Paul Sheeran considers the deep insight that can be gained from the study of key works in fiction and literature to enhance knowledge of the social forces shaping world affairs. While there are numerous relevant works, the author has carefully selected multi-faceted and colourful sources of material to explore developments in contemporary global issues such as the demise of the Soviet Union the attack on the World Trade Centre infectious diseases and human conflict This exciting book enthusiastically breaks new ground and is highly suitable for courses on international relations cultural studies and literature

Free Trade in the Bermuda Triangle-- and Other Tales of Counterglobalization Brett Neilson, 2004 An alternative approach to mapping the world offers a new way to contest capitalism and globalization Shangri La the Bermuda Triangle Transylvania the Golden Triangle far flung in popular conception these anomalous places nonetheless occupy the same mysterious zone a mythography of unruly cartographic practices And because this mythography becomes associated with a particular area of the earth's surface it may well suggest an alternative means of mapping the world dissociated from the dominant geographical paradigms of nation state economic region and the global local marketing nexus Large scale nonnational geographical spaces that find their genesis in popular feeling mystery and belief these four sites provide Brett Neilson with the basis not only for rethinking the current global reorganization of space and time but also for questioning the dominant narrative by which globalization marks the victory of capitalism Free Trade in the Bermuda Triangle moves between analysis of popular fantasies and engagement with on the ground realities weaving together topics as diverse as airplane disasters off the U S Atlantic coast the global drug trade vampire culture in postsocialist Europe and the search for utopia in Chinese occupied Tibet The study of globalization is largely a solemn affair occupied with increasing economic polarities environmental degradation and global insecurity Free Trade in the Bermuda Triangle maintains a critical focus on these sobering issues but at the same time asks how popular pleasure and enjoyment can create viable alternatives to the current global order Neilson takes seriously the proposition that capitalism must be contested at its own level of generality finding provisional grounds for resistance in nonlocal transnational spaces that embody quotidian hopes desires and anxieties By studying the real and imagined dimensions of these popular geographies his book seeks resources for social betterment in the fallen mythologies of the contemporary postutopian world

The Aesthetics of Island Space Johannes Riquet, 2019-12-17 Oxford Textual Perspectives is a series of informative and provocative studies focused upon literary texts conceived of in the broadest sense of that term and the technologies cultures and communities that produce inform and receive them It provides fresh interpretations of fundamental works and of the vital and challenging issues emerging in English literary studies By engaging with the materiality of the literary text its production and reception history and frequently testing and exploring the boundaries of the notion of text itself the volumes in the series question familiar frameworks and provide innovative interpretations of both canonical and less well known works The Aesthetics of Island Space discusses islands as central figures in the modern experience of space It examines the spatial poetics of islands in literary texts from Shakespeare's The Tempest to Ghosh's The Hungry Tide in the journals of explorers and scientists such as James Cook and Charles Darwin and in Hollywood cinema It traces the ways in which literary and cinematic islands have functioned as malleable spatial figures that offer vivid perceptual experiences as well as a geopoetic oscillation between the material energies of words and images and the energies of the physical world The chapters focus on America's island gateways Roanoke and Ellis Island visions of tropical islands Tahiti and imagined South Sea islands the islands of the US Canadian border region in the Pacific Northwest and the imaginative appeal of mutable islands It argues that modern voyages of discovery posed considerable perceptual and cognitive challenges to the experience of space and that these challenges were negotiated in complex and contradictory ways via poetic engagement with islands Discussions of island narratives in postcolonial theory have broadened understanding of how islands have been imagined as geometrical abstractions bounded spaces easily subjected to the colonial gaze There is however a second story of islands in the Western imagination which runs parallel to this colonial story In this alternative account the modern experience of islands in the age of discovery went hand in hand with a disintegration of received models of understanding global space Drawing on and rethinking post phenomenological geocritical and geopoetic theories The Aesthetics of Island Space argues that the modern experience of islands as mobile and shifting territories implied a dispersal fragmentation and diversification of spatial experience and it explores how this disruption is registered and negotiated by both non fictional and fictional responses Pinoy Poetics Nick Carbó,2004 Cultural Writing Literary Criticism Essays PINOY POETICS is a collection of poetics essays with sample poems representing over 40 poets of Filipino heritage who speak onbehalf of themselves ancestors and peers who have been historically ignored by U S literary cultural and academic institutions These essays show what is unique to Filipino poetics including responses to American imperialism the postcolonial and diasporic Filipino experience questions about historical narrative and the uses and abuses of language imposed by colonizers Public and academic libraries as well as personal collections with interests in Poetry Creative Writing Asian American Studies Cultural Studies Ethnic Studies Identity Poetics Filipino American Literature and Philippine Literature will find this book indispensable Reefer Movie Madness Shirley Halperin,Steve Bloom,2011-02-04 The ultimate guide for bong hitting movie buffs with over 420 entries plus contributions from Snoop Dogg Cheech Chong Margaret Cho and more From the authors of Pot Culture Reefer Movie Madness is the most extensive guide ever to movies for and about stoners going well beyond Harold and Kumar and Pineapple Express In addition to entries on more than 420 films there are contributions and Q As from actors movie directors musicians and celebrities including Jason Mraz comedian Andy Milonakis Snoop Dogg Doug Benson and Cheech Chong Reefer Movie Madness covers it all from pot fueled comedies and druggy dramas to sci fi flicks and 1960s artifacts to documentaries musicals and blockbusters including lots of photos sidebars and lists Film Review ,2000 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,2000 Cassette Books Library of Congress.
