language English abstract The Color Purple is Alice Walker's masterpiece which made the author not only the first female Afro American author to receive a Pulitzer Prize but moreover brought her world fame and a broader recognition of her other works This analysis of the text focuses on motifs themes and symbolism used in the story It also talks about the author by giving an in dept overview not only about her life but also the sociocultural background that shaped this novel As mentioned before a clear focus is put on themes symbols and motifs in the novel which are widely used and therefore also are somehow responsible for the diversity of approaches to reading the novel The textual analysis is enhanced by a brief summary of the plot characters and their relationship as well as a compressed paragraph talking about the setting and an overview over some narrative techniques used in the novel

The Color Purple Alice Walker, 2022-08-04 ONE OF THE BBC 100 NOVELS THAT SHAPED OUR WORLD A lush celebration of all that it means to be a black female Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie A story about Black women living in the intersections of racialized and gendered violence who find liberation through community with each other A brutal and beautiful novel Brit Bennett Every single time I read this book I walk away as a slightly better person than I was when I picked it up Tayari Jones I think that The Color Purple was the first book that made me think that I could try to be a writer or that made me aware that a young black woman from the South could write about the South Jesmyn Ward I got the book and read it in one day when it came out And then I went back the next day and bought every copy they had Oprah Winfrey Sisters Celie and Nettie share the pain and struggle of growing up as African American women in early twentieth century rural Georgia Forced into an abusive marriage at least Celie can offer Nettie refuge from their violent father in her new home until Nettie catches the attention of Celie's husband and is forced to leave and forge her own journey Through a series of letters spanning twenty years first from Celie to God then between the two sisters they manage to sustain their hope in each other across time distance and silence in a triumph of resilience bravery and ultimately love

The Color Purple Sarah Friedrichs, Frieda Meyer, 2012-10-28 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject American Studies Literature University of Hamburg course African American Literature language English abstract First published in 1983 the story of Alice Walker's The Color Purple is set in rural Georgia in the 1930's It is narrated through the letters of Celie the protagonist who begins to write to God in order to tell him about her life since her step father sexually abused her and told her to never tell anyone but God about it When Celie starts to write she is 14 years old Through the epistolary style of the novel the reader gains a good more personal and subjective impression of Celie's mental and physical condition and also of the situation she is growing up in as she writes down everything she can not tell anyone else Also the fact that Celie writes as she speaks intensifies the impression that the reader is in a conversation with her She is not trying to impress anyone with what she writes down but to deal with what happened to her In the course of the novel the reader is introduced to the characters that play a role in her life as well as the relationships she has with them Interestingly she never gives away the names of male persons like her step father or husband but calls them He or Pa or Mr__ The names of males that are younger than her are mentioned Celie is exposed to undergoing a major change in her personality and situation that in the end lead to her financial emotional and spiritual independence and freedom In this exam paper I want to focus on the indications that make it possible for Celie to develop her personality in such many directions and I want to have a look at what or who might bar her from doing so Therefore I am first going to analyse the relationships between Celie and the characters that are important for this topic and second have a look at the symbols and indicators that are used by the author throughout the novel in order to show that a ch
