Giolfo,2022-12-30 Foundational and comprehensive this volume provides a theoretical and practical overview of the current issues that dominate the field of teaching and learning Arabic grammar Bringing together authorities on Arabic grammar from around the world the book covers both historical contexts and current practices and provides principles strategies and examples of current Arabic grammar instruction across educational settings Chapter authors offer a range of perspectives on teaching approaches implementing research findings in the classroom and future challenges A much needed volume to help students teachers and teacher educators develop their knowledge and skills it addresses the most salient and controversial issues in the field including what grammar to teach how much grammar to teach how to address grammar in content based or communication based classroom and how to teach variation in grammar This resource is ideal for preservice Arabic language teachers as well as Arabic language professors and researchers Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education Xiang, Catherine Hua,2021-06-25 Language education tends to require more face to face interaction and longer hours of both teaching and learning The challenges of ensuring the future and development of the discipline especially after a time of crisis is equally unprecedented. A comprehensive overview of the global picture of best practices as well as research in recent times are needed in the field of language education particularly in higher education settings. The changing nature of language education in terms of its policy, curriculum design, methodology and innovation is an essential discussion to advance the field. It is critical to explore how a more collaborative global and interdisciplinary mindset as well as technologically driven approaches have emerged through recent years and how it will continue to shape the future development in the field. Trends and Developments for the Future of Language Education in Higher Education captures the current trends and ongoing development within language education through a global picture of the best practices as well as the latest research on language education in higher education settings. The chapters cover changes in policy, curriculum design, methodology and innovation in the modern language education landscape. While focusing on the current situation of language education and the changes that it has been undergoing, this book also provides information on future development and the overall outlook of language education. This book is ideal for teachers, instructional designers, curricula developers, inservice and preservice teachers, administrators, teacher educators, practitioners, researchers, academicians and students looking for an overview of the current position of language education in higher education.

Arabizi as a Learning and Teaching Resource Zinnia Shweiry, 2025-01-23. This book is the first of its genre to explore the use of Arabizi, the Romanized script of the Arabic language that is used online or in chat apps in the Arabic as a Foreign Language (AFL) classroom. It fills a noticeable and glaring gap in teaching a non-Romanized language through Romanized representation by observing and studying Arabizi as a resource that is yet to be acknowledged. As such, the author aptly and concurrently addresses concerns and problems that arise in AFL learning. An essential resource for studies in language acquisition, the author carves a new niche in the study of phonology and phonetics, particularly so in L1 and L2 studies with succinct and up-to-date examples. Relevant to applied linguistics and language educators in Arabic, it also draws comparisons between Chinese and Arabic alphabets in analyzing L1 and L2 purposes, making it a unique linguistic comparative contribution to the study of languages in classroom settings.
