Wiseman,2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks A Revised History for Advanced Level & Colleges Nassoro Habib Mbwana,2017-11-10 The book is a response of the suggestions and opinions provided to me by the students on writing a text that could be beneficial for them and other readers The book covers the period from the fifteenth century to the present 2014 It includes the development of Europe from mercantilism to a new

imperialism globalization and a neocolonial situation and underdevelopment to the less developed countries in the southern hemisphere It also justifies and revises important areas in the current 2009 syllabus which had been left by other authors in writing history texts for the advanced level Therefore the book justifies some areas that are beyond the syllabus but the questions do appear in examinations The book is directed to be useful for A level and college students the teachers and other readers who have an interest with history

The 'Other' Students Dina C. Maramba, Rick Bonus, 2012-12-01 Though the Filipino American population has increased numerically in many areas of the United States especially since the influx of professional immigrants in the wake of the 1965 Immigration Act their impact on schools and related educational institutions has rarely been documented and examined The Other Students Filipino Americans Education and Power is the first book of its kind to focus specifically on Filipino Americans in education Through a collection of historical and contemporary perspectives we fill a profound gap in the scholarship as we analyze the emerging presence of Filipino Americans both as subjects and objects of study in education research and practice We highlight the argument that one cannot adequately and appropriately understand the complex histories cultures and contemporary conditions faced by Filipino Americans in education unless one grapples with the specificities of their colonial pasts and presents their unique migration and immigration patterns their differing racialization and processes of identity formations the connections between diaspora and community belonging and the various perspectives offered by ethnic group centered analysis to multicultural projects The historical methodological and theoretical approaches in this anthology will be of interest to scholars researchers and students in disciplines which include Education Ethnic Studies Asian American and Pacific Islander Studies Anthropology Sociology Political Science Urban Studies Public Policy and Public Health
