A Rosetta Key for U.S. History Michael A. Susko, 2023-12-21 This work explores a generational history from America's Colonial period to the United States of contemporary times A novel historical approach will rely on generational markers every 15th year rather than yearly astronomical dates This method will make history more accessible and its patterns more apparent Identified from cultures presented in an earlier volume the phasings are 1 Invisible Beginnings 2 Establishment and Testing 3 Novel Consolidation and Opening Up 4 Crisis and Creativity 5 Empire and Inclusion and 6 Rigidification or Renewal This history does not seek to hide or obscure the shadow side of America nor does it fail to present beauty and light especially during the 30s generational phase One discovery prompted by this generational time chart was to more fully consider the importance of New Spain in understanding U S history A second and related theme is inclusion of the Indigenous whose influence extends to all phases of American history Come journey with us and experience historical events and people's lives generation by generation and see how they fit into historical phases Such an awareness the author contends will help us to make the generational choice of our times

Civil Rights in Black and Brown Max Krochmal, Todd Moya, 2021-11-09 2022 Best Book Award Oral History Association Hundreds of stories of activists at the front lines of the intersecting African American and Mexican American liberation struggle Not one but two civil rights movements flourished in mid twentieth century Texas and they did so in intimate conversation with one another Far from the gaze of the national media African American and Mexican American activists combated the twin caste systems of Jim Crow and Juan Crow These insurgents worked chiefly within their own racial groups yet they also looked to each other for guidance and at times came together in solidarity The movements sought more than integration and access they demanded power and justice Civil Rights in Black and Brown draws on more than 500 oral history interviews newly collected across Texas from the Panhandle to the Piney Woods and everywhere in between The testimonies speak in detail to the structure of racism in small towns and huge metropolises both the everyday grind of segregation and the haunting acts of racial violence that upheld Texas s state sanctioned systems of white supremacy Through their memories of resistance and revolution the activists reveal previously undocumented struggles for equity as well as the links Black and Chicanx organizers forged in their efforts to achieve self determination

Queens of Academe Karen W. Tice,2012-03-09 Universities are unlikely venues for grading bodies beauty poise and style Nonetheless thousands of college women have sought not only college diplomas but campus beauty titles and tiaras throughout the twentieth century and the cultural power of beauty pageants continues into the twenty first

In Queens of Academe Karen W Tice asks how and why does higher education remain in the beauty and body business and with what effects on student bodies and identities Drawing on archival research and interviews as well as hundreds of hours observing college pageants on predominantly black and white campuses Tice argues the pageants help to illuminate the shifting iterations of class race religion culture sexuality and gender braided into campus rituals and student life Moving beyond a binary of objectification versus empowerment Tice offers a nuanced analysis of the making of idealized collegiate masculinities and femininities and the stylization of higher education itself Prologue ,1996 The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History Michael A. Susko,2025-09-10 The Birth and Unfolding of Phases in History From Neolithic to World Pueblo and U S History brings together four major works into a single arc of human time Michael A Susko argues that the rhythm of history is not confined to the rise of empires but begins in the Neolithic with triadic 45 year generations that set the first phases of historical time in motion Using this framework the book explores Neolithic atlatl y k as a non empire model of symbolic and generational phasing This Initial work is in progress World history through Egypt Judah Israel Rome and the Medieval Modern era contrasting empire based and prophetic alternatives Ancestral Pueblo history as a more egalitarian path outside empire s mold U S history as a largely empire driven model tempered by ideals of freedom and equality This panoramic view balances empire and non empire trajectories showing how civilizations universalize their visions either through force or through sharing covenant and inclusion Written in accessible language yet grounded in rigorous patterning it invites readers to see history not as inevitable empire but as a set of choices that continue to shape our present and future
