MANAGERIAL LEADERSHIP IN MULTICULTURAL ORGANISATIONS KUNNETH

RAMAKRISHNAN,2013-02-13 The management and managerial leadership theories of eminent management thinkers taught in the business schools are thought provoking but relevant perhaps only to the era and the environment of their research and development The effectiveness of these theories needs a re assessment of their universal application in the globalised environment of the current era To put it differently traditional leadership styles of managers are being put to test in a culturally complex environment The objective of this book is to evolve an effective managerial leadership to match the demands of the multicultural organisations through a down to earth tangible and practical approach Unifying the diverse categories of employees with different value systems attitudes lifestyles behaviour patterns and linguistic abilities is a complex and inescapable challenge to the managerial leadership What we fail to notice is the significance of the power of positive managerial leadership what is appropriate and what is outdated The book contains numerous absolutely progressive and innovative concepts methods and approaches which could help reorient managerial leadership behaviour of global managers and re architect the organisations to which they belong The author has undertaken detailed analysis of some of the important management theories taught in business schools including their strengths and weaknesses The book clarifies conceptualises and recommends significant aspects of institutionalised positive managerial leadership in organisations The important milestones are influence of culture on employee behaviour positive organisational culture profile of positive managerial leadership their changing motivational roles organisational assimilations of multicultural employees new approach to employee welfare and some suggestions to evolve a future ready achievable dream organisation The following fresh concepts have been integrated with the discussion in the book Environmental Energy Effects 3Es and their effects on organisational culture Emotional Environmental Energy Effects E3Es and their influence on interpersonal relationships Therapy for Quality of Life TQL a well researched concept for actualising and operationalising the manager s concern for employees and their families Managing by Influence a wholesome method of motivating and leading employees for raising their performance standard and dynamically contributing to their organisation This book responds to the dynamic issues confronting the existing and emerging work culture in the corporate world It is an ideal source for the management students engineering students and the practising managers to gain a solid understanding of complex problems of modern managerial leadership the subject matter of this book

Management Crisis and Business Revolution John Harte,2017-07-05

Management Crisis and Business Revolution describes the enormous gap between business theories on the one hand and the realities of the workplace and uncertainties of the marketplace on the other In place of reasoned management and disciplined organization John Harte depicts daily disorder vagueness and confusion instead of the logical processes of classroom case histories with rational solutions He provides tales of an abundance of irrational judgments personal foibles and business follies Once a top operational manager with multinational organizations Harte applies his hands on knowledge of the business world to a realistic examination of workplace conditions He describes methodically how to handle human limitations in the average business enterprise as well as how to develop management strengths The author observed superior and inferior management firsthand and therefore witnessed the painful demise of many companies some of which in his opinion could have been saved With thirty years experience to draw on he analyzes why so many businesses and products fail while others succeed He examines the amazing progress of Japan and other Pacific Asian countries explains the decline of German Canadian British and French management practices and provides strategies for the marketplace The business sectors described in this all encompassing book include high technology fast moving packaged consumer goods like detergents manufacturing and retailing consumer durables like furniture and appliances soft goods fashion products service sector industries manufacturing wholesaling and retail trade and a whole range of new service industries Harte stresses that while management and trade are timeless dedication in the West has declined The challenge is how to manage change by innovating and replacing senile customs systems and institutions with more progressive ones suited to the new business environment This unusually tough
