Mankind And Mother Earth Arnold Joseph Toynbee:

Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Toynbee, 1976 Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Toynbee, 1976 A highly readable chronological narrative relating the story of man's interaction with his environment and with his fellow man from the earliest beginnings of human life until the 1970s Mankind and Mother Earth Arnold Joseph Toynbee, 1984

Arnold J. Toynbee: A Life William H. McNeill, 1989-04-20 One of the most remarkable thinkers of this century Arnold Toynbee won world wide recognition as the author of the monumental ten volume A Study of History Its publication and phenomenal success brought him fame and the highest praise as the reading public proclaimed him the most renowned scholar in the world This thought provoking engaging study of Toynbee written by one of today's most eminent historians weaves together Toynbee's intellectual accomplishments and the personal difficulties of his private life Providing both an intimate portrait of a leading thinker and a judicious evaluation of his work and his legacy for the study of history William H McNeill offers both a biography and a commentary on how to write and understand history Along with an illuminating discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of A Study of History and the countless other works written by Toynbee McNeill offers a compelling examination of the responses of other historians including the devastating attack launched by Hugh Trevor Roper and Toynbee's attempts to modify his Study to answer these criticisms McNeill also explores his tormented personal life including his troubled marriage to Rosalind Murray and the suicide of his son Anthony In this sympathetic depiction of a life both triumphant and tragic McNeill brings his skills to bear on one of the greatest figures in his field illuminating a career of rare accomplishment Archaeologies, Origins, Antiquities Nicoletta Bruno, 2025-04-21 This book examines the narratives of early cultural history in ancient Greece and Rome spanning from a macrocosmic outlook to a microcosmic exploration of individual stories familial dynamics and societal contexts The collection investigates the concepts of archaeologies origins and antiquities through a multifaceted approach considering literary rhetorical philosophical historical and epigraphic viewpoints Each chapter delves into various aspects of cultural history encompassing the influence of Homeric scholarship on Thucydides Archaeology Plato's concept of archaeologies the interpretation of the past through Hellenistic inscriptions and the cultural histories of Sallust Dicaearchus and Varro It also discusses the relationship between history humanity and the natural world in Lucretius and Seneca Vergil's accounts of early human history the role of families in shaping cultural history the origins of sexual violence in mythological stories and the reinterpretation of Roman foundational myths in late antiquity This volume invites readers to reflect on the ways in which the Greeks and Romans narrated their past interpreted their origins and constructed their collective memories Sorokin and Civilization Joseph B. Ford, 2018-04-17 Sorokin and Civilization is a festschrift to Pitirim Sorokin one of the most famed figures of twentieth century sociology and first president of the International Society for the Comparative Study of Civilizations ISCSC He was a giant of the twentieth century stage in the larger world as well He debated with Trotsky exchanged ideas with Pavlov and received a personal invitation to meet with President Masaryk of Czechoslovakia His principled dissent from sociological orthodoxy frequently anticipated that of Charles Wright Mills Alfred McClung Lee and Alexander Solzhenitsyn He was to paraphrase Joseph Ford a scholar among statesmen and a statesman among scholars The volume is divided into four parts A Life Remembered Sorokin as Gadfly Sorokin s Methodology and Applying Sorokin s Theories Contributors and chapters to this volume include Sorokin s Life and Work by Barry V Johnston The Sorokin Merton Correspondence on Puritanism Pietism and Science by Robert K Merton Sorokin and American Sociology The Dynamics of a Moral Career in Science by Lawrence T Nichols Sorokin as Dialectician by Robert C Hanson Applying Sorokin s Typology by Michel P Richard and Transitions Revolutions and Wars by William Eckhardt Sorokin and Civilization will appeal to all those with an interest in cultural and historical processes and the life and theories of Sorokin Civilization Giovanni Borgognone, Patricia Chiantera-Stutte, 2022-09-29 Civilizations or rather narratives about civilizations matter not only as research subjects in textbooks literary and scientific essays but also in politics This seems to be the case in civilizational states such as China Russia Turkey and Syria Also in Western countries in recent decades the notion of civilization has often been used in public discourse political parties and leaders have referred in particular to the need to protect Western civilization calling in this regard for policies to restrict immigration from Muslim countries In 2022 the narrative on civilization was used to legitimize the Russian invasion of Ukraine The studies in this collected volume reconstruct how civilizational paradigms and narratives have been used to explain political relations to define the global order to justify attempts to gain hegemony over particular geopolitical areas and to make predictions on global developments in specific times of crisis In particular this book analyzes the concepts of civilization as they have been used in the intellectual and political discourse in periods particularly critical for global relations and for the consolidation or contestation of the West s dominant role in international national politics and academic discourse The Face of the Earth J. Donald Hughes, 2015-05-11 Although the organizing principle of virtually every world history text is development the editor of this volume maintains that this traditional approach fails to address the issue of sustainability By adopting the ecological process as their major theme the authors show how the process of human interaction with the natural environment unfolded in the past and offer perspective on the ecological crises in our world at the beginning of the 21st century Topics range from broad regional studies that examine important aspects of the global environment that affect nations to a study of the widespread influence of one important individual on his nation and beyond The authors take different approaches but all share the conviction that world history must take ecological process seriously and they all recognize the ways in which the living and non living systems of the earth have influenced the course of human affairs Thinking Woman Alessandra Gillis Drage, 2006 Offers women and all who have questions about themselves as thinkers an introductory answer in a concrete and inspirational way An invitation to appreciate an intimate inner reach Plato's Revenge William Ophuls, 2011-08-19 A provocative essay that imagines a truly ecological future based on political transformation rather than the superficialities of sustainability In this provocative call for a new ecological politics William Ophuls starts from a radical premise sustainability is impossible We are on an industrial Titanic fueled by rapidly depleting stocks of fossil hydrocarbons Making the deck chairs from recyclable materials and feeding the boilers with biofuels is futile In the end the ship is doomed by the laws of thermodynamics and by the implacable biological and geological limits that are already beginning to pinch Ophuls warns us that we are headed for a postindustrial future that however technologically sophisticated will resemble the preindustrial past in many important respects With Plato's Revenge Ophuls author of Ecology and the Politics of Scarcity envisions political and social transformations that will lead to a new natural law politics based on the realities of ecology physics and psychology In a discussion that ranges widely from ecology to quantum physics to Jungian psychology to Eastern religion to Western political philosophy Ophuls argues for an essentially Platonic politics of consciousness dedicated to inner cultivation rather than outward expansion and the pursuit of perpetual growth We would then achieve a way of life that is materially and institutionally simple but culturally and spiritually rich one in which humanity flourishes in harmony with nature

Refugees and the End of Empire P. Panayi, P. Virdee, 2011-05-17 An examination of the relationship between imperial collapse the emergence of successor nationalism the exclusion of ethnic groups and the refugee experience Written by both established authorities and younger scholars this book offers a unique international comparative approach to the study of refugees at the end of empire

Capitalism and Environmental Collapse Luiz Marques, 2020-08-17 This book intends to be an alert to the fact that the curve measuring environmental costs against the economic benefits of capitalism has irreversibly entered into a negative phase The prospect of an environmental collapse has been evidenced by the sciences and the humanities since the 1960s Today it imposes its urgency This collapse differs from past civilizations in that it is neither local nor just civilizational It is global and occurs at the broadest level of the biosphere accelerated by the convergence of different socio environmental crises such as Earth energy imbalance climate change and global warming Sea level rise Decrease and degradation of forests Collapse of terrestrial and aquatic biodiversity Floods droughts wildfires and extreme weather events Degradation of soils and water resources Increase in pollution caused by fossil fuels and coal Increase in waste production and industrial intoxication The book is divided in two parts In the first part it presents a comprehensive review of scientific data to show the already visible effects of each of the different environmental crises and its consequences to human life on Earth In the second part Luiz Marques critically discusses what he calls the three concentric illusions that prevent us from realizing the gravity of the current socio environmental crises the illusion of a sustainable capitalism the illusion that economic growth is still capable of providing more well being and the anthropocentric illusion Finally Marques argues that fitting back into the biosphere will only be possible if we dismantle the expansive socioeconomic gear that has shaped our societies since the 16th century by moving from a Social Contract to a Natural Contract which takes into account the whole biosphere According to him the future society will be post capitalist or it will not be a complex society and even perhaps we must fear no society at all This book is backed up with the latest and best science and has made the complexities understandable for the average reader all in a context of hope for the future William J Ripple PhD Distinguished Professor of Ecology Director of the Alliance of World Scientists Oregon State University Writing the Materialities of the Past Sam Griffiths, 2021-06-14 Writing the Materialities of the Past offers a close analysis of how the materiality of the built environment has been repressed in historical thinking since the 1950s Author Sam Griffiths argues that the social theory of cities in this period was characterised by the dominance of socio economic and linguistic cultural models which served to impede our understanding of time space relationality towards historical events and their narration The book engages with studies of historical writing to discuss materiality in the built environment as a form of literary practice to express marginalised dimensions of social experience in a range of historical contexts It then moves on to reflect on England's nineteenth century industrialization from an architectural topographical perspective challenging theories of space and architecture to examine the complex role of industrial cities in mediating social changes in the practice of everyday life By demonstrating how the authenticity of historical accounts rests on materially emplaced narratives Griffiths makes the case for the emancipatory possibilities of historical writing He calls for a re evaluation of historical epistemology as a primarily socio scientific or literary enquiry and instead proposes a specifically architectural time space figuration of historical events to rethink and refresh the relationship of the urban past to its present and future Written for postgraduate students researchers and academics in architectural theory and urban studies Griffiths draws on the space syntax tradition of research to explore how contingencies of movement and encounter construct the historical imagination Herbert Butterfield C.T. McIntire, 2008-10-01 Herbert Butterfield 1900 1979 was an important British historian and religious thinker whose ideas in particular his concept of a Whig interpretation of history remain deeply influential In this intellectual biography the first comprehensive study of Butterfield C T McIntire focuses on the creative processes that lay behind Butterfield's intellectual accomplishments Drawing on his investigations into Butterfield's vast and diverse output of published and unpublished work McIntire explores Butterfield's ideas and methods He describes Butterfield's lifelong devotion to his Methodist faith and shows how his Christian spirituality animated his historical work He also traces the theme of dissent that ran through Butterfield's life and work presenting a man who found himself at odds with prevailing convictions about history morality politics religion and teaching a man who elevated the notion of dissent into an ethic of living in tension with any established system The Word and the Sword Leonard Dudley, 1991 Dudley attempts to impose a pattern on the entire history of human civilization He shows how the major transformations in the character of social life have been determined by eight significant innovations four new ways of dealing with information writing printing mass media and integrated circuits and four new ways of organizing the applications of violence metal weapons artillery steam transport and heavy cavalry Military and informational technologies are so crucial because they are instrumental in holding states together while innovation in itself tends to produce new economies of scale On Deep History and the Brain Daniel Lord Smail, 2008 When does history begin What characterizes it This book dissolves the logic of a beginning based on writing civilization or historical consciousness and offers a model for a history that escapes the continuing grip of the Judeo Christian time frame It lays out a new case for bringing neuroscience and neurobiology into the realm of history An Environmental History of the World J. Donald Hughes, 2002-09-26 An Environmental History of the World is a concise history from Ancient to Modern times of the interaction between human societies and the other forms of life that inhabit our planet This original work follows a chronological path through the history of mankind in relationship to ecosystems around the world Each chapter concentrates on a general period in human history which has been characterised by large scale changes in the relationship of human societies to the biosphere and gives three case studies that illustrate the significant patterns occurring at that time Little environmental or historical knowledge is assumed from the reader in this introduction to environmental history The Economics of Infrastructure Provisioning Arnold Picot, Massimo Florio, Nico Grove, Johann Kranz, 2016-04-29 The complexities of financing installing implementing and regulating public infrastructures including empirical research analytical models and theoretical insights Infrastructures tangible intangible and institutional public facilities from bridges to health care are a vital precondition for economic and societal wellbeing There has been an increasing awareness that we cannot rely on market forces for infrastructure investment and maintenance In this volume experts from Europe North and South America and Asia examine the complexities of financing installing implementing and regulating public infrastructures Their contributions span a range of methodological approaches including historical and empirical research analytical models theoretical analysis and sector and regional case studies they consider the economics of infrastructure provisioning by government through private public partnerships and privatization arrangements The book first treats general investment growth and policy issues and then offers sector specific analyses of transportation energy telecommunications and water infrastructures The chapters cover topics that include the evolution of historical infrastructure the relationships between the state and private finance in funding and financing infrastructure and the relevance of infrastructure for economic growth Contributors Julio C Aguirre Laure Athias Stephen J Bailey Sumedha Bajar Biswa Nath Bhattacharyay Federico Boffa Daniel Danau Sumit S Deole Bal zs Egert Massimo Florio Stephan Fretz Asmae El Gallaa Marco Giorgino Hugh Goldsmith Nico Grove Markus Hofmann Lynne Kiesling Johann Kranz Antonio Nunez Arnold Picot Michael Pollitt Olivier Crespi Reghizzi Martina Santandrea St phane Straub Annalisa Vinella A Disquisition on Religion, Science and the State Christian Jaramillo, 2010-12-20 Philosopher and historian Christian Jaramillo puts forward new and revolutionary approaches to understanding God the stances that religions should adopt the development of science and the States role in the pursuit of human freedom By studying the evolution of mankind and its religious societies over the past thirteen thousand years Jaramillo demonstrates that through syncretism man has ultimately worshipped the same one God under different names The author reaffirms the existence of God the validity of universal philosophers and the significance of religions in the construction of ancient and modern societies In this book Jaramillo proposes a new theology for life rejects immortality after death and unravels some of the religious myths that have created structural flaws for humanity in constructing their societies such as the deterioration of human habitat the destruction of ethnic groups and the many confrontations between races and peoples Jaramillo denounces the powerful obsession of religions in controlling mankind through their influence over State decisions to the detriment of the spiritual freedoms and inalienable natural liberties of man which supersede the State and inhibit science We believe that the works of this brilliant thinker will kick start a revolution in theological philosophical and social approaches all of which will remain the subject of hot debate in the coming centuries Land Between the Rivers

Bartle Bull, 2024-09-10 The epic five millennia history of the region between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers that was the birthplace of civilization and remains today the essential crossroads between East and West At the start of the fourth millennium BC at the edge of historical time civilization first arrived with the advent of cities and the invention of writing that began to replace legend with history This occurred on the floodplains of southern Iraq where the great rivers Tigris and Euphrates meet the Persian Gulf By 3000 BC a city called Uruk from which Iraq is derived had 80 000 residents Indeed as Bartle Bull reveals in his magisterial history if one divides the 5 000 years of human civilization into ten periods of five centuries each during the first nine of these the world's leading city was in one of the three regions of current day Iraq or to use its Greek name Mesopotamia Inspired by extensive reporting from the region to spend a decade delving deep into its history Bull chronicles the story of Iraq from the exploits of Gilgamesh almost certainly an historical figure to the fall of the Iraqi monarchy in 1958 that ushered in its familiar modern era The land between the rivers has been the melting pot and battleground of countless outsiders from the Akkadians of Hammurabi and the Greeks of Alexander to the Ottomans of Suleiman the Magnificent Here by the waters of Babylon Judaism was born and the Sunni Shia schism took its bloody shape Central themes play out over the millennia humanity's need for freedom versus the co eternal urge of tyranny the ever present conflict and cross fertilization of East and West with Iraq so often the hinge We tend to view today's tensions in the Middle East through the prism of the last hundred years since the Treaty of Versailles imposed a controversial realignment of its borders Bartle Bull's remarkable sweeping achievement reminds us that the region defined by the land between the rivers has for five millennia played a uniquely central role on the global stage
