Love Letter To The Earth Thich Nhat Hanh:

Love Letter to the Earth Thich Nhat Hanh, 2013-06-17 The world renowned Zen monk argues for a more mindful spiritual approach to environmental protection and activism one that recognizes people and planet as one and the same While many experts point to the enormous complexity in addressing issues ranging from the destruction of ecosystems to the loss of millions of species Thich Nhat Hanh identifies one key issue as having the potential to create a tipping point He believes that we need to move beyond the concept of the environment as it leads people to experience themselves and Earth as two separate entities and to see the planet only in terms of what it can do for them Thich Nhat Hanh points to the lack of meaning and connection in peoples lives as being the cause of our addiction to consumerism He deems it vital that we recognize and respond to the stress we are putting on the Earth if civilization is to survive Rejecting the conventional economic approach Nhat Hanh shows that mindfulness and a spiritual revolution are needed to protect nature and limit climate change Love Letter to the Earth is a hopeful book that gives us a path to follow by showing that change is possible only with the recognition that people and the planet are ultimately one and the same

God is Green Bob Shore-Goss,2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God's creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change
