Satyanarayana, Nicole Thiara, 2019-06-18 This book companion to the much acclaimed Dalit Literatures in India examines questions of aesthetics and literary representation in a wide range of Dalit literary texts It looks at how Dalit literature born from the struggle against social and political injustice invokes the rich and complex legacy of oral folk and performative traditions of marginalised voices The essays and interviews systematically explore a range of literary forms from autobiographies memoirs and other testimonial narratives to poems novels or short stories foregrounding the diversity of Dalit creation Showcasing the interplay between the aesthetic and political for a genre of writing that has changed as its goal the volume aims to make Dalit writing more accessible to a wider public for the Dalit voices to be heard and understood The volume also shows how the genre has revolutionised the concept of what literature is supposed to mean and define Effervescent first person accounts socially militant activism and sharp critiques of a little explored literary terrain make this essential reading for scholars and researchers of social exclusion and discrimination studies literature especially comparative literature translation studies politics human rights and culture studies Advance, 2009 Biographical Encyclopaedia of Sufis N. Hanif, 2000 Old Pension vs. New Pension Ajmer Singh, 2019-05-20 Man is revolutionary since its birth He does experiments after experiments to gain sustainable development from cheap sources Nation is Nation after all So he decided to remove old pension from its employees who recruited on or after 01 01 2004 and affixed new pension system for those Second thing is a man who become a M L A or M P even for a single day gets full pension What a great curse between the both So the book is explains about the differences of old pension and new pension Mr Raman is appointed as a teacher under dept of education and the story is started with his denied to obtain new pension and he demanded old pension He thought about his past life how he left pvt school teacher job and then left the job for govt school teacher job who he gets regular teacher orders He did all kind of duties whom he directed from time to time by departmental orders He thought about the better life and future of teachers He thought about the rising prices he thinks about rising population and its bad effects Water and its increasing level is also a matter of thought He also imagines about the good govt and good pm of Nation
