1. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

Aesop was born a slave and he served two masters. The second was given him his freedom in appreciation of his wit and intelligence.

After he became a free man Aesop travelled a great deal instructing people through his fables and at the same time learning about the world and its ways from all he came into. The Dove and the Tortoise, The Boy who cried Wolf, The Grasshopper and the Ant and The Fox and the Grapes are popular even today.

He finally settled in Scleria, capital of Lydia, at the invitation of the ruler of the country, King Croesus, who was a great patron of learning and learned men. It was Croesus, however, who unwittingly sent him to his death. Croesus wanted someone trustworthy to go to Delphi with a large amount of gold which was to be distributed among the citizens there and he sent Aesop. The citizens of Delphi, however, were not satisfied with the amount of gold sent. They demanded more. Aesop, in despair, sent the gold back to his royal master. This enraged the people and they sent him and put him to death.

- How did Aesop get his freedom?
- What did Aesop do when he became a free man?
