Making Visitors Mindful Principles For Creating Sustainable Visitor Experiences Through Effective Communication Advances In Tourism Applications:

Making Visitors Mindful Gianna Moscardo, 1999 Making Visitors Mindful sets out a series of principles to assist in communicating with visitors. These principles are applicable to a broad range of tourism and recreation settings and are based on a theory of how people deal with learn and use new information. This mindfulness mindlessness model of human information processing has been tested and used in a range of business educational medical and other social problems. Making Visitors Mindful offers Principles and examples relevant and applicable to a broad range of tourism and recreation settings directions for planning design and management of educational programs and other visitor communications services that are based on a large body of applied and relevant research evidence and a theory which is easily assessable to managers and that can be used to generate ideas for communications with visitors in many different places. Overtourism and Cruise Tourism in Emerging Destinations on the Arabian Peninsula Manuela Gutberlet, 2023-07-31 Cruise tourism is one of the fastest growing sectors worldwide. This book is the first of its kind to provide in depth insights into the emergence of mega cruise tourism in destinations on the Arabian Peninsula and its impacts on local communities their spaces cultures identities and tourist experiences. It offers a micro sociological analysis calling for holistic participatory mindful approaches and to rethink current exploitative tourism planning and development. It assumes a high political social and economic importance within globalization. It draws on a long term field study in an under researched region in Asia that developed large scale tourism recently to diversify the economy. The book provides insights on the destination development from a state of continuous growth to a sudden fall in tourism activities due to a sudden shock caused by the global health pandemic and its resilience. It explores the sociocultural economic and spatial challenges faced in international tourism development and its power relations analysed from different perspectives and within time. It analyses time space compression overtourism urban tourism nature based tourism enclavization social capital imaginaries Cultural Ecosystem Services slow tourism as well as just tourism. The book provides an innovative contribution to the planning and development of tourism destinations communities and their spaces in which tourism operates in a fast pace. It will be of interest to academics undergraduate and postgraduate students in the field of tourism and hospitality management geography sociology anthropology urban planning and environmental sciences. Moreover the book will be useful for practitioners and policymakers around the globe as well as all those interested in the fast emergence and the impacts of mega cruise tourism. Quality Assurance and Certification in Ecotourism Rosemary Black, Alice Crabtree, 2007 Genuine ecotourism can have many positive impacts particularly the conservation of biodiversity and cultural heritage and the creation of economic opportunities for local communities. While promoting these it aims to eliminate negative impacts such as environmental degradation cultural commoditisation and playground effects. Unfortunately the concept is broadly misunderstood and its true definition is widely debated. It is often used as a marketing tool with some operators taking advantage of the ecotourism label to attract more business while behaving in environmentally irresponsible ways This book considers the important topic of quality control and accreditation in ecotourism describing the mechanisms that can be implemented to ensure quality in all aspects of the industry namely protected areas businesses products and tour guides Recreation and Parks Betty Van der Smitten, 2005 Gaining an understanding of the recreation and parks profession is crucial to success in the field and to effective leadership within the field Recreation and Parks The Profession is a one of a kind resource that delineates the components that make this complex field a profession Written by well known recreation authority Betty van der Smitten this book defines the marks of the recreation and parks profession and identifies the steps involved in becoming a professional in the field profiles 62 professional organizations within the profession provides a Web site that features a time line of the development of areas and organizations of the profession and the most up to date Web addresses for organizations detailed in the text outlines a comparative history of 15 categories of the recreation and parks field in the United States and Canada and presents a classic to contemporary bibliography of resources that showcases an inclusive body of knowledge on the profession Part I describes recreation and parks as a profession and provides students with steps to lay a solid foundation to become a professional Part II grounds readers with a comparative historical overview of the recreation and parks field from the 1500s to the present day The author divides the field into 15 categories and offers suggestions on how to use the time line Part III profiles 62 professional organizations Each profile includes the organization s mission goals structure history publications services and professional credentialing information In addition it lists the organization s Web sites contact information and other vital information that students use in completing course work in applying for internships and in researching various aspects of the profession Part IV contains a bibliography of selected resources on recreation and parks from classic to the present Recreation and Parks The Profession includes a Web site that not only provides links to other current Web sites for the organizations profiled but it also is linked to a color coded version of the time line The time line is ready to download print and use in the classroom or office This version of the time line provides the most effective way to obtain an overall picture of the historical comparison of the categories in the recreation and parks profession Recreation and Parks The Profession is a unique resource for students professors and professionals in recreation and parks The text brings together the important aspects of the field as a profession The Journal of Tourism Studies ,1999 Turismo e patrimônio cultural Costa Flavia Roberta, 2019-08-06 A autora traz uma nova perspectiva aos profissionais da rea ao estudar e divulgar conceitos te ricos globalmente aceitos por m quase in ditos no Brasil de comunica o interpretativa e suas rela es com o turismo cultural Al m de passar pela hist ria do turismo pela filosofia interpretativa pela influ ncia das m dias e por diferentes aspectos do turismo cultural o livro traz anexos relevantes com normas e orienta es espec ficas a respeito da gest o preserva o e uso de patrim nio hist rico Australian Parks and Leisure ,1998 Geotourismus Heidi Elisabeth Megerle, 2024-02-19 Geotourismus lange

Information and Communication Technologies for Sustainable Tourism Alisha Ali, Andrew J. Frew, 2013-05-07 Sustainable development is a highly topical issue and is of critical importance to tourism as the environment is of utmost importance for the continued development and prosperity of the industry There have been numerous texts written on sustainable tourism and the measures to mitigate and manage this but none which acknowledges Information and Communication Technologies ICT as a mechanism of doing so despite being an emerging area of research ICT in this context refers to innovative tools which form an integrated system of software and networked equipment that facilitates data processing information sharing communication and the ability to search and select from an existing range of products and services for an organisation's benefits Despite the symbiotic relationship which exists between ICT and sustainable tourism there has been little research which has considered how the use of such technology can be used to make sustainable tourism development a more workable reality This opportune book is the first to provide a focus on the interrelationship of these two important topics demonstrating their synergies and providing insight into a new and innovative approach to managing sustainable tourism development It considers the use of technology to reduce the negative impacts of tourism from both the demand and supply side perspectives A critical review of a range of cutting edge technologies used by tourists and businesses to assess their usefulness in managing sustainable tourism development from the macro to the micro level is also discussed It further integrates examples and practical applications to show how ICT can be an invaluable mechanism in the management of sustainable tourism development This cutting edge volume provides a wealth of information on an important yet neglected subject This book will be invaluable reading for students researchers academics and members of the tourism industry looking for new and innovative ways of fostering a more sustainable tourism industry Enhancing Visitor Experience Through Interpretation ,2009 Sustainable and Collaborative Tourism in a Digital World Alain Decrop, Antonia Correia, Alan Fyall, Metin Kozak, 2021-04-01 Presents theories methods and results for enhancing techniques for more sustainable marketing and explores how sharing practices in business raises new social challenges and the ethical questions that arise as a consequence It offers insights from some of the world experts in the area as to how tourism marketing can evolve and advance Visitor Experience Design Noel Scott, 2017 The aim of this book is to examine the best practice in creating and delivering exciting and memorable visitor experiences from a cognitive psychological perspective It consists of 17 chapters organized into six parts Part I provides the theories and frameworks of the tourist experience The next three parts examine the pre experience stage Part II on site experiences Part III and post experience outcomes Part IV Part V provides cases of specific tourism experiences while the lone chapter in Part VI provides a conclusion and thoughts on future research

Marketing for Sustainable Tourism Xavier Font, Scott McCabe, 2019-12-13 Tourism marketing has typically been seen as exploitative and fuelling hedonistic consumerism Sustainability marketing can however use marketing skills and techniques to good purpose by understanding market needs designing more sustainable products and identifying more persuasive methods of communication to bring behavioural change This book summarises the latest research on the theories methods and results of marketing that seeks to make tourist destinations better places to live in and better places to visit It shares evidence on the motivations mechanisms and barriers that businesses encounter and on successes in changing consumer behaviour and pursuing sustainability goals Particular attention is given to the methodologies of sustainable tourism marketing to the subject's breadth and complexity and to its many innovations Further research is called for to fully understand what contextual aspects influence these pro sustainability interventions to achieve which outcomes in other settings in order to validate some of the exploratory studies discussed and establish the feasibility of scaling up pilot studies for more general use This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Managing Visitor Experiences in Nature-based Tourism Julia N. Albrecht, 2021-03-19 This book focuses on the experiences of tourists visiting nature based destinations exploring current knowledge and providing insights into conceptual issues through the use of empirical evidence from five continents Presented as three topics the contents discuss tourism and naturebased experiences by looking at the role and relevance of nature and the uniqueness of such experiences The book identifies visitor management challenges and provides explanations for the solutions reached The final section takes a more overarching destination management perspective that transcends the tourism product or business level and focuses on destination and generic issues like indicators or marketing implications The book also includes research based case studies which contribute to an overall understanding of the core issues involved in managing visitor experiences in nature based tourism Marketing and Designing the Tourist Experience Isabelle Frochot, Wided Batat, 2013-03-31 The topic of experience is becoming central to full understanding of consumer behaviour The book covers the key sectors where it is critical from resort management and tourist information to destination marketing International in scope it backs up the theory throughout with relevant case materials questions and exercises Experiential Consumption and Marketing in Tourism within a Cross-Cultural Context Antónia Correia, Alan Fyall, Metin Kozak, 2019-07-31 This edited volume examines the role and place of culture in tourism and how it is manifested in marketing theory policy and practice It includes case examples and looks at the roles of tourists locals and communities and business practices in facilitating and sharing culture Understanding and Governing Sustainable Tourism Mobility Scott A. Cohen, James E.S. Higham, Gossling Stefan, Paul Peeters, 2014-03-26 Despite a growing contribution to climate change tourist and traveller behaviour is currently not acknowledged as an important sector within the development of climate policy Whilst tourists may be increasingly aware of potential impacts on climate change there is evidence that most are unwilling to modify their actual behaviours Influencing individual behaviour in tourism and informing effective governance is therefore an essential part of climate change mitigation This significant volume is the first to explore the psychological and social factors that may contribute to and inhibit sustainable change in the context of tourist and traveller behaviour It draws on a range of disciplines to offer a critical review of the psychological understandings and behavioural aspects of climate change and tourism mobilities in addition to governance and policies based upon psychological behavioural and social mechanisms It therefore provides a more informed understanding of how technology infrastructure and cost distribution can be developed in order to reach stronger mitigation goals whilst ensuring that resistance from consumers for socio psychological reasons are minimized Written by leading academics from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and regions this ground breaking volume is essential reading for all those interested in the effective governance of tourism s contribution to climate change now and in the future
