Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2004 Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention Danuta Wasserman,Camilla Wasserman,2009-03-26 The Oxford Textbook of Suicidology is the most comprehensive work on suicidology and suicide prevention that has ever been published Written by world leading specialists it describes all aspects of suicidal behaviour and suicide prevention provides up to date information on the different kinds of risk and protective factors and provides an overview of research within disciplines covering psychological cultural biological and sociological factors The online version of the Oxford Textbook of Suicidology contains the full text of the print edition which can be browsed by the contents list or searched links from references in the text to external sources via PubMed ISI and CrossRef and all figures and illustrations from the print edition downloadable into PowerPoint The Relationships Between Alexithymia, Perfectionism, Aelf-esteem, Ethnicity and Body Image Disturbance Whitney Alexis Kantack,2014 Body image disturbance is a pervasive problem in this country that is associated with eating disorder pathology depression anxiety and other psychological problems Very few studies have attempted to examine body distortion the more severe form of body dissatisfaction as it relates to alexithymia perfectionism perfectionistic self presentation self esteem ethnicity and ethnic identity This study explored the relationships between body satisfaction dissatisfaction and body distortion with alexithymia self esteem and perfectionism and ethnicity variables through the use of the following measures Toronto Alexithymia Scale TAS Frost Multidimensional Perfectionism Scale FMPS Perfectionistic Self Presentation Scale PSPS Rosenberg Self Esteem Scale RSES Multigroup Ethnic Identity Measure MEIM Appearance Evaluation and Body Areas Satisfaction subscales of the Multidimensional Body Self Relations Questionnaire MBSRQ Photographic Figure Rating Scale PFRS and Eating Attitudes Test EAT Participants included 151 females of all ethnicities between the ages of 18 and 65 Mage 29.98 years Results indicated that self esteem was the most significant predictor of body satisfaction Additionally greater body satisfaction was associated with lower levels of alexithymia perfectionism and perfectionistic self presentation and higher levels of ethnic identity Body satisfaction also was found to mediate the relationship between ethnic identity and body distortion Further body satisfaction was found to vary based on age parent education and parent SES These findings present important information on psychosocial factors which influence body dissatisfaction Exploring Moderators of the Relationship Between Maladaptive Perfectionism and Eating Disorder Symptomatology Among College Women Samantha Koch,2006 Abstract In recent years the relationship between eating disorder symptomatology and perfectionism has been the subject of much study however research has not been consistent on whether a relationship exists between these two variables Therefore the present study investigated whether third variables i e body surveillance body shame and self esteem moderated this relationship with 307 college women Hierarchical multiple regression analyses indicated that the proposed variables did not moderate the relationship between maladaptive perfectionism and eating disorder symptomatology However it was noted that maladaptive perfectionism directly contributed unique variance to eating disorder symptomatology above and beyond the variance of the proposed moderators suggesting that it is a unique predictor of disordered eating for college women

The Relationship Between Self-compassion and Disordered Eating

Behaviors Angela Danielle Finley-Straus, 2011 The concept of self compassion has been gathering interest for researchers in recent years as it appears to offer an array of benefits to wellbeing This study investigated the potential role of self compassion as a protective factor against disordered eating behaviors It also examined the mediating roles of three potential variables body dissatisfaction perfectionism and contingent self worth Given modern representations of the female ideal failure to achieve or adequately conform to such standards often poses psychological challenges for women and girls Self compassion encompasses kind mindful self treatment and may be an ideal protective factor against disordered eating It has also been linked with lower body dissatisfaction maladaptive perfectionism and contingent self worth The present study found that dissatisfaction with one's body as well as a tendency to judge one's personal worth based on appearance fully mediated the relationship between self compassion and both restrained and emotional disordered eating respectively Therefore a self compassionate attitude may serve as a protective factor against engaging in disordered eating vis vis strengthening young women's abilities to look at their bodies in a more compassionate and unconditionally accepting way

Exploring Self-discrepancy and Body Shame Models of Perfectionistic Self-presentation in Moderating the Relationship Between Body Image Disturbance and Appearance Management Behaviors in a College Female Sample

Megan Agee Guidry, University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Department of Psychology, 2013 Previous studies have measured facets of perfectionism within a disease model focusing heavily on the eating disordered population The present study sought to further explore an interpersonal dimension of perfectionism within a nonclinical sample to see if this type of perfectionism moderated the relationship between body image dissatisfaction and behaviors aimed at changing the physical appearance A sample of young women N 475 were given measures to assess negative perfectionism interpersonal perfectionism body dissatisfaction and shame sociocultural perceptions and appearance management behaviors Three significant interactions were observed among body shame sociocultural perceptions and interpersonal perfectionism Additionally negative perfectionism displayed a robust and consistent relationship with other predictor variables throughout Specific types of sociocultural perceptions on appearance were significant predictors of changing one's appearance in response to body image disturbance These findings may steer future prevention research to explore how these personality and sociocultural factors influence appearance management behaviors
