Malaysian Anti Corruption Governance And Initiatives:

OECD Economic Surveys: Malaysia 2019 OECD,2019-07-24 Malaysia s economy is doing well but social and governance challenges must be addressed The new government prioritises inclusive growth and improving trust in public institutions Further progress toward the planned target of high income country status by 2024 will also require focusing on productivity growth with structural reforms to move up the value chain and improve skills Ensuring environmental protection will improve the quality of growth License to Drill Cari L. Votava,Jeanne M. Hauch,Francesco Clementucci,2018-08-07 Natural resources have the transformational potential to support economic and political stability as well as contribute to national prosperity and economic development However in countries dependent upon natural resource sectors poor management of these sectors often contributes to corruption illicit financial flows IFFs and thus poverty Adequate transparency and accountability in regulatory management of these sectors is a challenge for resource rich countries Poor licensing decisions in natural resource management can open a pandora s box of corruption risks This manual provides methods and options based on good practices to improve transparency accountability and integrity in the regulatory licensing process and integrity due diligence The manual borrows models from the Basel Core Principle fit and proper concept and provides options for conducting effective a beneficial ownership b criminal legal and c conflicts of interest checks with a goal of integrating these into the regulatory licensing process The manual also identifies common legal framework defects that can facilitate corruption risks and offers options based on principles of regulatory integrity to reduce these risks The good practices identified can help countries allocate limited financial resources in conducting thorough background checks in a cost effective manner as well as meet EITI s requirements for public disclosure of beneficial owners and politically exposed persons These strategies for reducing opportunities for corruption in extractive sectors can help reduce IFFs that can sap resources from the economy and inhibit a country s ability to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals OECD

Economic Surveys: Malaysia 2021 OECD,2021-08-12 Like many other countries Malaysia was hit hard by the COVID 19 pandemic starting in early 2020 Its past policy prudence has allowed Malaysia to react swiftly and boldly to the public health and economic crisis Public Management and Governance in Malaysia Noore Siddiquee,2013-01-17 The past two and a half decades have seen major transformations in public sector management and governance across the globe This book examines the ways public sector management and governance in Malaysia has changed and is changing under contemporary reform models Chapters are written by well established scholars and academics with intimate knowledge in their respective fields and provide a thorough and insightful analysis of the reform trends and developments on a range of topics These include performance management compensation reforms public budgeting accounting and reporting privatisation and public private partnership e government managing ethics and accountability local government and inter governmental relations While the book surveys the topics that are central to public sector management and governance it also focuses on the nature of reforms and changes that were introduced as well as the forces that have shaped their design and implementation process and the initial impacts and results Overall the book provides students and scholars of Politics and Southeast Asian Studies with a greater appreciation and deeper understanding of the recent developments and current trends of public sector management OECD Investment Policy Reviews: Malaysia 2013 OECD,2013-10-30 OECD Investment Policy Reviews Malaysia presents an assessment of the investment climate in Malaysia including the institutional and legislative framework for investment ADB/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia and the Pacific Knowledge, Commitment, Action against Corruption in Asia and the Pacific OECD,Asian Development Bank,2007-11-26 Under which it proliferates They know first hand that corruption jeopardizes security and economic growth perpetuates poverty and exacerbates social inequities The knowledge has prompted the governments of more than half the world s population ADB/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia and the Pacific Anti-Corruption Policies in Asia and the Pacific Legal and Institutional Reform in 25 Countries OECD,Asian Development Bank,2007-11-26 Over the last decade societies have come to realize the extent to which corruption and bribery have undermined their welfare and stability Governments the private sector and civil society alike have consequently declared the fight against Transforming Nigeria: Pathways to Progress and Prosperity Zachariah Dauke Suleiman,101-01-01 Transforming Nigeria Pathways to Progress and Prosperity envisions a future where Nigeria s full potential is realized through unity innovation and strategic development The book outlines key drivers of transformation investment in education skills healthcare Human Capital Development modernizing transportation energy communication Infrastructural Development fostering startups and research Innovation and Entrepreneurship and strengthening public institutions through reforms It challenges Nigerians to harness their collective power to build a brighter and prosperous future A Critical Public Relations Approach to Crisis Communication and Management Huabin Wang,2022-10-19 This book proposes a critical public relations approach to analyzing crisis communication with Malaysia Airlines flight 370 MH370 disappearance 2014 2018 as a case study It examines the discursive process of Malaysia s crisis response and image building tracing Malaysia Airlines during the immediate response and the Malaysian establishment until the official suspension of the underwater search The study features a critical discourse analysis of 84 national media texts and 85 response statements focusing on three aspects the national media representations of Malaysia s image the national carrier and the government s rhetorical strategies of delivering stances and actions and the dynamic process of image reconstruction and national recovery The present project contributes to the current research area by integrating both linguistic and public relations perspectives and more importantly by highlighting the ideological impact instead of merely behavioral effectiveness in modern communication research Target readers may find their interest in corporate crisis communication critical inquiry about political public relations and the MH370 incident in general ADB/OECD Anti-Corruption Initiative for Asia and the Pacific Curbing Corruption in Tsunami Relief Operations OECD,Asian Development

The Transnationalization of Anti-Corruption Law Régis Bismuth,Jan

Dunin-Wasowicz,Philip M. Nichols,2021-05-27 The last twenty years have witnessed an astonishing transformation the fight against corruption has grown from a handful of local undertakings into a truly global effort Law occupies a central role in that effort and this timely book assesses the challenges faced in using law as it too morphs from a handful of local rules into a global regime The book presents the perspectives of a global array of scholars of policy makers and of practitioners Topics range from critical theoretical understandings of the global regime as a whole to regional and local experiences in implementing and influencing the regime including specific legal techniques such as deferred prosecution agreements addressing corruption issues in dispute resolution whistleblower protection civil and administrative prosecutions as well as blocking statutes The book also includes discussions of the future shape of the global regime the emergence of transnational compliance standards and discussions by leaders of international organizations that take a leading role in the transnationalization of anti corruption law The Transnationalization of Anti Corruption Law deals with the most salient aspects of the global anti corruption regime It is written by people who contribute to the structure of the regime who practice within the regime and who study the regime It is written for anyone interested in corruption or corruption control in general anyone with a general interest in jurisprudence or in international law and especially anyone who is interested in critical thinking and analysis of how law can control corruption in a global context

Islamic Finance and Sustainable Development Abdulkader Thomas,2025-01-23

The proliferation of energy agricultural water and food insecurity can be attributed to a multitude of factors including advancements in technology that have facilitated the technical and economic utilization of energy and water resources environmental degradation climate anomalies mounting pressure on water resources due to escalating demand and surging energy requirements These challenges have been addressed from multiple perspectives ranging from Islamic social finance to large scale project finance Large corporations are also involved in tackling the environmental impact of climate change or operating in water stressed regions This book argues however that there is little value to be gained from this activity when sustainability initiatives and frameworks are not being measured The book surveys Islamic finance and sustainability theories setting the stage to detail the actual work of businesses banks non governmental organizations NGOs and multilateral agencies addressing water food and energy insecurity It examines case studies which cover diverse aspects of sustainability mostly in the context of fragile economic and ecological situations and discusses practical cases from an Islamic perspective in which local and regional problems are addressed An important feature of the book is the description of how Islamic social finance builds pathways to scale for the mobilization of funds as well as the expansion of sustainable ventures Further the unique issues of carbon markets are explored from the perspective of Shariah compliance as well as managing adverse events The cases present replicable scalable solutions These unique stories align theory to reality and sometimes they highlight the shortfalls in the theory The cases allow researchers academics and policy makers an opportunity to examine the effectiveness of theories and policies opposite real life experiences and also give business and NGO leaders clear examples to follow Eighth Regional Seminar on Good Governance for Southeast Asian Countries United Nations Asia and Far East Institute for the Prevention of Crime and Treatment of Offenders,2015

Malay Voters in Malaysia Are "Turning Green" Syaza Shukri, 2024-05-09 There is an increasing trend among young Malay voters in Malaysia to support the Perikatan Nasional coalition with a particular emphasis on the Islamist party PAS Despite recognition of the weak economy as a significant national concern young Malay voters continue to place a higher emphasis on Muslim leaders who assert their commitment to safeguarding the rights of Islam in Malaysia Consistent with theories on political socialization the influence of family members significantly affects young Malay voters in Malaysia particularly due to their limited political awareness of alternative channels like formal schooling Young Malay voters acknowledge the significant impact of social media and TikTok particularly in how these shape the voting patterns of their peers They nevertheless maintain a perception of their own impartiality in this regard Interestingly the influence of Islamic institutions with their own educational philosophy on the political behaviour of Malay youth is minimal as their political ideas are already shaped by their early experiences
