Mango Street Chapter Questions:

The House on Mango Street (Study Guide) LessonCaps,2012-08-13 Following Common Core Standards this lesson plan for Sandra Cisneros The House on Mango Street is the perfect solution for teachers trying to get ideas for getting students excited about a book BookCaps lesson plans cover five days worth of material It includes a suggested reading schedule discussion questions essay topics homework assignments and suggested web resources This book also includes a study guide to the book which includes chapter summaries overview of characters plot summary and overview of themes Both the study guide and the lesson plan may be purchased individually buy as a combo however and save The House on Mango Street - Literature Kit Gr. 7-8 Taryn McKenna,2021-06-29 Experience the discrimination of race gender and class felt by one girl in this coming of age story The layout and variety of activities in this resource will keep students engaged and involved in the reading Use metaphors and figurative language to describe things that bring comfort much like Esperanza s thoughts on her mother s hair Describe Nenny s personality based on what s been revealed in previous chapters Put events surrounding Esperanza s poetry writing in the order as they occur in the chapter Explain why the author might choose specific spelling as a plot device Choose words that mean the same as the vocabulary word found in the reading Write your own persuasive argument similar to Esperanza s argument for eating at school Record the symbolism of shoes used throughout the novel by detailing their use on a flowchart Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom s Taxonomy our worksheets incorporate a variety of scaffolding strategies along with additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key About the Novel The House on Mango Street follows Esperanza Cordero as she tells stories from her childhood living on Mango Street in a series of vignettes Esperanza is a young Latina girl living in a mostly Hispanic neighborhood in Chicago She is not happy with her home on Mango Street Her neighborhood is poor and the people that live within it are treated like second class citizens Esperanza experiences a lot of hardships growing up from discrimination against her race to men abusing their wives Esperanza witnesses all this in her neighborhood and vows to make a better future for herself The House on Mango Street is a coming of age story that explores tough topics that force a young girl to grow up quickly Lesson Plans: Literature BookCaps,2014-01-25 How do you teach classic works of literature in school This book provides five day lesson plans for over a half dozen of greatest books To Kill a Mockingbird The Great Gatsby Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Lord of the Flies The Outsiders The House of Mango Street Great Expectations and The Color Purple Each lesson plan may also be purchased separately Who Gets to Write Fiction? Ariel Sacks,2023-10-03 Writing and sharing fiction allows adolescents to glimpse other lives The current curricular emphasis on analytical writing can make it feel risky to teach creative writing in ELA classrooms But the opportunity to write fiction in school opens many doors for young people doors the author argues are critical to the development of our students our education system and even our democracy This book will delight English teachers weary of focusing relentlessly on argument and information

writing Veteran teacher Ariel Sacks vividly describes the many academic social emotional and community building advantages of teaching imaginative writing in the classroom not least of which is the impact it has on equity for marginalized students Her book is a teacher to teacher text that folds in detailed practical guidance about how to design lessons and meet standards while presenting a powerful central argument that the writing of fiction should be treated not as a luxury for some but as a center of the English curriculum for all students

Handbook of Empirical Literary Studies Donald Kuiken, Arthur M. Jacobs, 2021-09-20 This handbook reviews efforts to increase the use of empirical methods in studies of the aesthetic and social effects of literary reading The reviewed research is expansive including extension of familiar theoretical models to novel domains e g educational settings enlarging empirical efforts within under represented research areas e g child development and broadening the range of applicable quantitative and qualitative methods e g computational stylistics phenomenological methods Especially challenging is articulation of the subtle aesthetic and social effects of literary artefacts e g poetry film Increasingly the complexity of these effects is addressed in multi variate studies including confirmatory factor analysis and structural equation modeling While each chapter touches upon the historical background of a specific research topic two chapters address the area s historical background and guiding philosophical assumptions Taken together the material in this volume provides a systematic introduction to the area for early career professionals while challenging active researchers to develop theoretical frameworks and empirical procedures that match the complexity of their research objectives

Multicultural Literature and Literacies Suzanne Miale Miller, Suzanne M. Miller, Barbara McCaskill, 1993-01-01 Does literature serve a humanizing function Can it achieve social transformation What roles does literature play for defining self creating community and achieving global perspective This is the first book to thoroughly explore the methods by which educators creative writers and policymakers have constructed workable models of teaching literature in multicultural classrooms The authors provide an interdisciplinary dialogue on the setbacks solutions silences and successes that often occur in classes of multicultural literature They all take the stance that definitions of literacy and literature originate as much outside the classroom as within it With the inclusion of essays by writers themselves a feature provided by no other book on this subject the authors offer a unique vocalization of the nationalistic economic empowering and moral purposes that reading and writing serve The book also includes a current guide to selected resources in multicultural literature in hopes of encouraging and facilitating instructors in the transformation of their own literature courses into multicultural ones
