Eswarappa Kasi,K. M. Ziyauddin,2009-10-02 Dimensions of Social Exclusion focuses largely on social exclusion in the context of communities and social groups who have or have not been considered in discussing the benefits of mainstream inclusive society or development Contemporary understanding of social exclusion has revived great interest among academics researchers and policy makers in understanding problems from the perspectives of social exclusion The decision to adopt the perspective of social exclusion has not been universal rather the nature of this is very heterogeneous In addition the concept of social exclusion is not static in reality it is a process The process is seen in the marginalization and discrimination of people in their everyday lives and interactions The term exclusion has become a part of the vocabulary in Europe and other developing societies like poverty or unemployment it is one of those words which seem to have both an everyday meaning and an underlying sense It emphasizes the social aspects of concerns such as housing health employment education participation in social activities and festivities social interaction and social intercourse It excludes certain communities and groups from interaction and access to social resources through social arrangements normative value systems and customs Exclusion based on caste is one example and patriarchy is another which is a form of systemic or constitutive exclusion Having social cultural political and economic ramifications it is also a complex and multi dimensional concept These dimensions are interwoven and are addressed in the different papers of the volume This book revolves around the societal interventions and institutions that exclude discriminate isolate and deprive some groups on the basis of group identities such as caste or ethnicity It covers a wide spectrum of societies and communities living in various cultural environments The multidisciplinary nature of the book will render it helpful to students and researchers of sociology anthropology historical and political studies demography social work and gender studies in particular and the humanities in general Bullets of '71 Dr. Nuran Nabi,2010-08-27 Bullets of 71 A Freedom Fighter s Story details Dr Nuran Nabi s experience growing up in rural Bangladesh and living through the tumultuous episodes of the Bangladesh liberation movement and the liberation war This is the true story of how a frail young man developed into a politically conscious student activist before transforming into a heroic freedom fighter in the Bangladesh Liberation War Throughout Dr Nabi s narrative the untold stories of the Bangladesh Liberation War unfold The sacrifices and heroic actions captured through Dr Nabi s words define more than his accomplishments they define his entire generation The Bangladesh Liberation War was a people s war Men and women young and old students farmers bureaucrats laborers political activists and defected Bengali soldiers of the Pakistani military all joined the liberation war Bullets of 71 is their story The Bangladesh liberation war was bloody Three million people were killed thousands of women were raped and ten million people were forced to become refugees However this story transcends the events of the war It explores the political backdrop amongst China the United States the Soviet Union and India Dr Nabi effectively illustrates how the selfish decisions of a few world leaders led to millions of crimes perpetrated against humanity But among all the pages in this book none are more candid and horrific than those that cover the atrocities committed by the Pakistani military Although the Bangladesh genocide unfolded during the nine months of the liberation war Dr Nabi thoughtfully separates these stories to remind us of why he and his fellow freedom fighters fought Bullets of 71 A Freedom Fighter s Story is the most authentic account of the events that transpired in 1971 Bangladesh It is a captivating story that captures the elements of the universal struggle for freedom Success in Higher Education Leigh N.
