Expert Knowledge in Global Trade Erin Hannah, James Scott, Silke Trommer, 2015-08-27 This book explores tensions in global trade by examining the role of experts in generating disseminating and legitimating knowledge about the possibilities of trade to work for global development To this end contributors assess authoritative claims on knowledge They also consider structural features that uphold trade experts monopoly over knowledge such as expert language and legal and economic expertise The chapters collectively explore the tensions between actors who seek to effect change and those who work to uphold the status quo exacerbate asymmetries and reinforce the dominant narrative of the global trade regime The book addresses the following key overarching research questions Who is considered to be a trade expert and how does one become a knowledge producer in global trade How do experts acquire disseminate and legitimate knowledge What agendas are advanced by expert knowledge How does the discourse generated within trade expertise serve to close off alternative institutional pathways and modes of thinking What potential exists for the emergence of more emancipatory global trade policies from contemporary developments in the field of trade expertise This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of IPE Trade Politics International Relations and International Organizations Transformations in Trade Politics Silke Trommer, 2014-01-23 This book examines the evolution and application of participatory trade politics in West Africa and discusses the theoretical implications for political economy and global governance approaches to trade policy making The author traces the involvement of a network of West African global justice Non Governmental Organizations NGO local NGO and movement platforms and trade unions in the negotiations for an Economic Partnership Agreement with the European Union Building on this empirical analysis she develops a theoretical framework of trade policy formation that is not limited to conceptualizing trade as a policy field aimed exclusively at regulating exporting and importing activities in the global economy Instead she analyzes how material and ideational spheres interact in the way in which communities set the rules that enable them to trade across long distances Attempting to reconcile demands for inclusivity with current economic policy making the author reframes the way in which we theoretically pose questions of who makes trade policy decisions through which mechanisms and why trade policy making practices change or resist change Transformations in Trade Politics will be of interest to students and scholars of International Political Economy Global Governance Social Movement Studies International Economic Relations International Trade Relations African Politics The Politics of African International Development EU politics and EU African Relations Dispute Settlement Reports 2009: Volume 1, Pages 1-622 World Trade Organization, 2011-03-24 The authorized paginated WTO Dispute Settlement Reports in English cases for 2009 The Interface of International Trade Law and Taxation Jennifer E. Farrell, 2013 This book explores the ill defined and oft underestimated relationship between the World Trade Organization WTO and taxation By adopting a two pronged approach the relationship is examined in terms of the extent to which the WTO legal framework exerts influence upon domestic tax law and international tax policy and whether it is appropriate for the WTO to play a regulatory role in the field of taxation The book begins with an examination of the historical development of international trade law and international tax law and demonstrates that these two separate areas of law are closely linked in terms of their underlying principles and historical evolution The work then goes on to offer a doctrinal analysis of the tax content found in the WTO legal texts and highlights ambiguities therein OECD Trade Policy Studies Looking Beyond Tariffs The Role of Non-Tariff Barriers in World Trade OECD, 2005-11-22 This publication analyses where and why certain non tariff measures are being applied to traded goods that are covered by multilateral rules and disciplines and how they continue to represent challenges for exporters and policy makers Handbook on International Trade Policy William Alexander Kerr, James D. Gaisford, 2007 Focuses on trade policy issues in the era of globalization This work deals with international trade issues discusses the literature on the subject and explores major controversies It is suitable for researchers academics policymakers and practitioners concerned with international trade policy □□□□□ Walter Goode, 1997 Choice, 2008 Trade Policies and Agreements in the Era of Globalization Paul B.
