Living On Christopher T. Dole, 2025-04-08 Living On centers around the unprecedented mobilization of mental health professionals in the wake of a massive earthquake that struck western Turkey in 1999 a disaster that left more than 20 000 people dead and hundreds of thousands of residents displaced Working amid unimaginable destruction and suffering volunteer psychiatrists and psychologists would quickly improvise a makeshift response offering thousands of survivors access to psychiatric care for the first time Never before had there been such a collective expression of concern for people's psychological well being Christopher Dole explores how this psychiatric response fashioned individual and collective lives far into the disaster's future Based on research spanning two decades from the earthquake to its twentieth anniversary he considers how this convergence of geological activity and psychiatric expertise introduced novel psychiatric and psychological discourses into everyday lives of survivors as it also animated new visions of self society and technopolitical promise Living On not only offers insight into Turkey's transformations over the opening decades of the twenty first century but it also sheds light on a more general arrangement of disaster governance and medical expertise one that increasingly characterizes our era of planetary ecological crisis

Group Psychotherapy for Psychological Trauma Robert H. Klein, Victor L. Schermer, 2000-05-17

This indispensable book is designed to help practitioners create initiate and maintain therapy groups for traumatized individuals. Written by an array of experienced group therapists, the book addresses general aspects of trauma group therapy as well as issues specific to different populations and clinical problems. Cogent practical information is provided on such important topics as screening and selecting members, understanding the impact of trauma on group dynamics, managing the effects of flashbacks, addressing dissociative states, working with countertransference reactions, and dealing with clients' emotional crises. Approaches and strategies are discussed for diverse groups including survivors of sexual and physical abuse, clients with severe medical illnesses, bereaved children, survivors of catastrophic events in the community, victims of political and ethnic persecution, and those with diagnosed mental disorders in which trauma plays a significant role. Filled with illustrative case material, the book offers essential insights and tools for therapists, supervisors, and trainees from a range of orientations.

Disaster Mental Health Counseling Mark A. Stebnicki, 2016-12-07. Focuses on understanding cultural and psychosocial contexts to promote optimal healing for disaster survivors. This is the first book for mental health professionals working with survivors of mass trauma to focus on the psychosocial and culture contexts in which these disasters occur. It underscores the importance of understanding these environments in order to provide maximally effective mental health interventions for trauma survivors and their communities. Global in scope, the text addresses the foundations of understanding and responding to the mental health needs of individuals and groups healing from traumas created by a wide range of natural and human-made critical events, including acts of terrorism, armed conflict, genocide, and mass violence by individual perpetrators. Designed for professional training in disaster mental health and meeting CACREP standards, the text promotes the knowledge and skills needed to work with the psychosocial aspects of individual and group adaptation and adjustment to mass traumatic experience. Reflecting state-of-the-art knowledge, the book offers detailed guidelines in assessment and brief interventions related to survivors' posttraumatic stress symptoms and complex trauma associated with being at the epicenter of extraordinary stressful and traumatic events. In addition, this book also covers critical issues of self-care for the professional. Illustrated with first-person accounts of disaster survivors and case scenarios, this book emphasizes how counselors and other mental health professionals can foster resilience and wellness in individuals and communities affected by all types of disasters.

Key Features: Considers disaster and mass trauma response from a culturally and globally relevant perspective; the first book of its kind. Addresses CACREP's clinical standards and content areas related to disaster mental health response. Covers many types of disasters and categories of survivors. Includes updated information on PTSD, complex trauma, and self-care. Addresses cultivating resiliency in individual and group survivors along with social justice issues.

Crisis as an Opportunity Roni Kaufman, Richard Edwards, Julia Mirsky, Amos Avgar, 2011-10-16.
