Primary Huh: Curriculum conversations with subject leaders in primary schools John Tomsett, Mary Myatt, 2022-04-25 There s plenty to do when planning the curriculum in primary schools If it feels daunting then one of the most helpful things is to talk to other people about how they have developed the curriculum for their particular subject or key stage This is what John Tomsett and Mary Myatt have done After the secondary Huh Curriculum conversations between subject and senior leaders was published they were flooded with requests to produce a primary version They enlisted the help of renowned primary specialists Rachel Higginson Lekha Sharma and Emma Turner to have conversations with primary teachers and key stage co ordinators who are doing great curriculum development work

Each chapter provides insights into the importance of individual subjects and the unique contribution each makes to pupils cognitive and personal development The subject chapters discuss the steps colleagues take to ensure that there is a coherent thread across the year groups as the discrete subjects deliver collectively the primary curriculum These conversations show how the craft of creating a rich challenging curriculum for every subject is not a quick fix This is a nuanced piece of work and there are many ways of approaching it Each chapter also contains links to subject associations and helpful resources Primary Huh has been written for subject leaders and key stage co ordinators it has also been written for senior leaders as they prepare to have supportive conversations with their colleagues who are responsible for curriculum development Primary Huh is offered as a prompt rather than the last word Informed debate is as they say the fuel of curriculum development And why have John and Mary called it Huh Well John discovered that Huh is the Egyptian god of endlessness creativity fertility and regeneration and they thought that was a pretty good metaphor for their work on the curriculum Mastering Primary History Karin Doull, Christopher Russell, Alison Hales, 2019-02-21 Mastering Primary History introduces the primary history curriculum and helps trainees and teachers learn how to plan and teach inspiring lessons that make learning history irresistible Topics covered include Current developments in history History as an irresistible activity History as a practical activity Skills to develop in history Promoting curiosity Assessing children in history Practical issues This guide includes examples of children s work case studies readings to reflect upon and reflective questions that all help to show students and teachers what is considered to be best and most innovative practice and how they can use that knowledge in their own teaching to the greatest effect The book draws on the experience of three leading professionals in primary history Karin Doull Christopher Russell and Alison Hales to provide the essential guide to teaching history for all trainee primary teachers

Disciplinary literacy in primary schools: Reading, writing and speaking across the curriculum Shareen Wilkinson, 2025-08-22 Drawing on the research evidence Disciplinary Literacy in Primary Schools offers both theoretical and practical examples of how teachers can support primary pupils in reading writing and speaking across the subject disciplines Shareen Wilkinson draws on twenty years experience in primary education to outline the ways in which disciplinary literacy can help pupils to read write and speak like scientists geographers and historians while exploring other areas across the curriculum This is an essential professional development resource for all Trust leads senior leaders local authority advisers teachers curriculum leads and subject leads who are passionate about having exemplary practice
