Questions:

- What is the view of medieval society that is expressed in this document?
- According to this document, what is the deadliest of sins?

Society, like the human body, is made up of different parts. Each member of society serves a purpose: prayer (clergy), defense (knights), merchandising (tradesmen, merchants) or tilling the soil (serfs). Each person should receive the means proper for his or her class. Within classes there must be equality; between classes there must be inequality. Peasants must not follow the orders of those above them. Lords must not take unfair advantage of the peasants. Craftsmen and merchants should receive only what they need to remain in business and no more. To seek more is greed, and greed is a deadly sin.

Question:

- Why does Pope Innocence III believe that the church has more power than kings and other secular rulers?

The Creator set up two great lights in the heavens; the greater light to rule the day, the lesser light to rule the night. In the same way, the Church has set up two great lights on earth; the greater light, being the Pope, to rule over souls; the lesser light, being the king, to rule over bodies. Just as the moon's light comes from the sun, does the power of the king come from the Pope. The more closely a king is willing to follow the Pope's rule, the greater his light will be.

recognized how much more than this would be required Little by little I became aware that my present estimate of persons and of things was not always what it once had been that later books demanded to be read and later knowledge used not to say that it was one thing to address a class of young ladies who however little one might know oneself upon a subject were tolerably sure to know less and another to lay oneself open to the criticism of all comers It has followed that much has been re written something withdrawn not a little added About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works distinction between the two is frequently blurred authority and power are distinct concepts and abilities this was a problem that the Church tussled with throughout the High and Late Middle Ages Claims of authority efforts to have that authority recognized and the struggle to transform it into more tangible forms of power were defining factors of the medieval Church s existence As the studies assembled here demonstrate claims to authority by members of the Church were often in inverse proportion to their actual power a problematic paradox which resulted from the uneven and uncertain acceptance of ecclesiastical authority by lay powers and indeed fellow members of the ecclesia The chapters of this book reveal how clerical claims to authority and power were frequently debated refined opposed and resisted in their expression and implementation The clergy had to negotiate a complex landscape of overlapping and competing claims in pursuit of their rights They waged these struggles in arenas that ranged from papal royal and imperial curiae through monastic houses law courts and parliaments urban religious communities and devotional networks to contact and conflict with the laity on the ground the weapons deployed included art manuscripts dress letters petitions treatises legal claims legates and the physical arms of allied lay powers In an effort to further our understanding of this central aspect of ecclesiastical history this interdisciplinary volume which effects a broad temporal geographical and thematic sweep points the way to new avenues of research and new approaches to a traditional topic It fuses historical methodologies with art history gender studies musicology and material culture and presents fresh insights into one of the most significant institutions of the medieval world
