Taylor, 2013-09-13 The term Purchasing Power Parity may date from the early twentieth century when it was coined by the Swedish economist Gustav Cassel but the underlying concept had been enjoying varying degrees of success since its development in sixteenth century Spain Even towards the end of the twentieth century and especially since the breakdown of the Bretton Woods system of fixed exchange rates PPP and the stability of real exchange rates continued to be the subject of academic debate This volume brings together essays covering aspects of current thinking on Purchasing Power Parity from the various ways in which to test for its existence to its appearance in different economies around the world to examinations of the explanations given when PPP does not appear to hold This book was published as a special issue of Applied Financial Economics The academic editor of this journal is Mark P Taylor Research in Education ,1971 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1984 British National Bibliography for Report Literature ,2000-08 The Social Uses of Literacy Mastin Prinsloo, Mignonne Breier, 1996-01-01 The Social Uses of Literacy Theory and Practice in Contemporary South Africa challenges state driven policy and provision in South Africa around the construction of a national delivery system for adult literacy that is part of a programme for Adult Basic Education The implication is that many people who are the target of this system will be unwilling to participate at the entry point of literacy acquisition unless a reconceptualisation of the nature of literacy use by adults is made Using fascinating and carefully documented case study material this book raises vital questions about literacy and illiteracy and about adult education Above all it questions the efficacy of any literacy programme which fails to acknowledge the many ways in which uneducated and so called illiterate people already use reading writing and numeracy in their everyday lives Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2007 The Global HIV Epidemics Among Men who Have Sex with Men ,2011-01-01 Human Rights Risk behavior Cost effectiveness Low and middle income countries Human Immunodeficiency Virus Epidemic Men who have sex with men Attributable fraction Intervention Prevention Homosexuality
