In life I believe that:

My film will show this in action by exploring (situation):

The main conflict is between:

Topic

Write a concise paragraph about:

1. Your film's subject (person, group, environment, social issue, etc.)
2. The necessary background information the audience must have to understand and to be interested in the enclosed world you intend to present. Be sure to show how this information will emerge.

Action Sequences

Write a brief paragraph for each intended sequence that shows an activity. (A sequence is usually delineated by being in one location, one chunk of time, or an assembly of materials to show one topic). Incorporate the following:

1. What the activity is and what conflict it evidences
2. A metaphor to explain its subtextual meaning
3. The expected structure of events
4. What the sequence should contribute to the whole film and to the hypothesis
5. What facts the audience must gather from watching it
6. What key, emblematic imagery you hope to capture at once personal and universal It tells the story of a listless little girl Chihiro who stumbles into a magical world where gods relax in a palatial bathhouse where there are giant babies and hard working soot sprites and where a train runs across the sea Andrew Osmond s insightful study describes how Miyazaki directed Spirited Away with a degree of creative control undreamt of in most popular cinema using the film s delightful freewheeling visual ideas to explore issues ranging from personal agency and responsibility to what Miyazaki sees as the lamentable state of modern Japan Osmond unpacks the film s visual language which many Western and some Japanese audiences find both beautiful and bewildering He traces connections between Spirited Away and Miyazaki s prior body of work arguing that Spirited Away uses the cartoon medium to create a compellingly immersive drawn world This edition includes a new foreword by the author in which he considers the world of animated cinema post Spirited Away considering its influence on films ranging from del Toro s Pan s Labyrinth to Pixar s Inside Out
