The Deeds of the Neapolitan Bishops Luigi Andrea Berto, 2023-05-30 In the early Middle Ages Naples underwent huge changes. She was able to acquire complete independence from the Byzantine Empire and to emerge as one of the major powers in southern Italy. Moreover, Naples avoided becoming part of the Frankish Empire, being subdued by the Lombards of southern Italy and being attacked by the Muslims who had conquered Sicily. The Deeds of the Neapolitan Bishops is the only medieval historical text composed in Naples before the 14th century; not only does it report the biographies of the Neapolitan bishops during those centuries but also describes the history of Naples and the relationships the Neapolitans had with their dangerous neighbors. This volume presents the analysis of the Latin text, English translation, and historical commentary of this work, thus offering an important contribution for a better understanding of early medieval southern Italian and Mediterranean history. The book will appeal to scholars and students of chronicles, Naples and Church history in early medieval Italy, as well as all those interested in medieval Europe and the Mediterranean.

Living Memory Jillian R. Cavanaugh, 2012-06-28 Living Memory investigates the complex question of language and its place at the heart of Bergamasco culture in northern Italy. It integrates extensive participant observation with sociolinguistic data collection. It reveals the political and social dynamics of a national language, Italian, and a local dialect, Bergamasco, struggling for survival. It introduces the original concept of the social aesthetics of language, the interweaving of culturally shaped and emotionally felt dimensions of language choice. Written to be accessible to students and specialists alike. Part of the Blackwell Studies in Discourse and Culture Series.

The 'Other', Identity, and Memory in Early Medieval Italy Luigi Andrea Berto, 2022-11-30 The political fragmentation of Italy created by Charlemagne's conquest of a part of the Lombard Kingdom in 774 and the weakening of the Byzantine Empire in the eighth and ninth centuries, the conquest of Sicily by the Muslims in the ninth century, and the Norman conquest of southern Italy in the second half of the eleventh century favored the creation of areas inhabited by persons with different ethnic, religious, and cultural backgrounds. Moreover, this period witnessed the increase in production of historical writing in different parts of Italy. Taking advantage of these features, this volume presents some case studies about the manner in which others were perceived, what was known about them, the role of identity, and the use of the past in early medieval Italy, ninth and eleventh centuries, focusing in particular on how early medieval Italian authors portrayed that period and were sometimes influenced by their own present in their reconstruction of the past. The book will appeal to scholars and students of otherness, identity, and memory in early medieval Italy, as well as all those interested in medieval Europe.
